Raising a Perfect Child (A Mother's Day Reminder)

"Tiny fingers curled around mine. Perfectly formed. Newborn. The image of two. Infinite mystery. I wanted to know where life comes from."

—from Eagle Song, by the Imperials

David and Elizabeth were near neighbors of ours for a number of years in Meadow Pointe during our younger years. Great people! Great parents! David was a funny guy. I'll never forget a classic line of his about parenting. It painted the practice on the canvas of reality as plainly as anyone could portray it. Reflecting on the time when they had but one little shy, introverted, compliant girl, David said, "For years, when I would hear other parents talking about all the problems they were having making their kids mind, I would think, 'What's the matter with these people?'"

In fact," he said, "I even started thinking about writing a book on parenting. You know, to try and help out the poor, inept types who can't see how to raise perfect children. But then," he went on to say, "Jonathan was born."

When You, Then God

Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

When you do X, then you get Y

When you're kind to people, they tend to be kind back.

When you save money, then you have more money.

When you take care of your car, it tends to last longer.

We understand when you get X, then you get Y.

But would it surprise you to know that we serve a when, then kind of God?

Throughout the Bible, God teaches this. God says to Adam and Eve, "When you stay away from that tree, then I'll make your life good."

It continues with Noah. "When you build this boat, by these specifications, then I'm going to save you and start all over with you."

Then Abraham. God comes to him and says, "I know you're old, but when you put your trust in me, then I'm going to make you the father of many nations."

It continues with Moses. "When you choose to follow me, then I'm going to have you lead my people out of slavery."

It continues on to Jesus. Jesus said, "When you seek, you will find, and when you knock, the door will be opened. When you ask, then it will be answered. When you remain in me, then you will begin to look like me."

Throughout scripture, God is letting us know that when you do X, then you get Y.

Why is so important for us?

There's a tendency for us to drift one way or the other in the way we view the Bible. Some drift toward the idea that the Bible is simply our get out of hell free card.

Read enough of it to know the prayers and the things you got to do in order to escape hell and go to heaven. Once you figure that out, you think, "I don't need to read the Bible anymore. I've done what I need to do."

Others see the Bible like ancient literature. We put it on the shelf with our collection of other books. The truth is, the Bible is filled with all these amazing principles that God wants to do in our life, but he's basically saying, "Your move. When you do X, then I will do Y. But I'm waiting on you."

Until next month,

Keith

The Well Bible Study Ministry

By Susie Walther

The Kingdom of God is other-worldly, transcending Earth's cultures, religions, ethnicities, races, and traditions. It's not defined by any of those natural things and, instead, operates in and through and beyond and despite any of those things. The Church was brought into existence by the will of God as the spiritual organism for exalting Jesus and spreading His Kingdom on the earth.

The Church is made up of people called out of every culture, religion, ethnicity, race, and tradition to become one Family unified under one King who has given us a common Image and Mission defined by a common Book that tells us to take one Message to the world—the King and the Kingdom have come.

And right there is where things break down because we like our idea of "oneness" over God's. Our idea of oneness is almost always sameness. God's idea of oneness is unity. So, though we live in the most culturally diverse nation on the earth, our churches often don't reflect that diversity as we still have white churches, black churches, Hispanic churches, Asian churches, etc. And instead of our denominations being representative of our diversity, they instead are often the reason for our divide.

If we're not careful, we will let this separatism that we're so comfortable with play out at the Well, too. We'll be tempted to stick with what we know and who we know and sit with those who look like us. But we can break that mold and be to each other what this otherworldly Kingdom is all about! We can refuse to duplicate at the Well what we know is broken.

We can join the revolution Jesus started when He broke down the dividing wall between Jew and Gentile. The gaps between us will shorten as each of us continually and intentionally takes a step away from what's comfortable and moves toward someone unfamiliar or just plain different from ourselves. That's how a church, and that's how a city, are won!

Mother's Day Offering

Most all of us have fond memories of our mother. Her love and care for us is etched in our minds. As May is the month we celebrate Mother's Day, we are reminded that unfortunately, many children do not have the loving care of their mothers. Thankfully, God has brought some of them to a place called Hope Children's Home where the wonderful staff and supporters fill the gap that has been left by their parents.

In celebration of Mother's Day, we have dedicated the whole month of May for a giving opportunity in honor/memory of your mother. Through our Mother's Day Offering, your special gift allows our children to have the loving, Christ-honoring home that every child deserves. Your gift and sacrifice is certainly appreciated. You can give a Mother's Day Offering through mail or online at HopeChildrensHome.org/Donate. Thank you for giving so that we can continue to "Rescue the next Generation." May God Bless you and your family.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Canines for Christ

By Karen McBride

Canines for Christ is an animal therapy ministry. Volunteers and their dogs visit people in cancer centers, children's homes, nursing homes, hospitals, prison ministries, and other places where people are in need of God's comforting words and the unconditional love and affection dogs can bring.

Chaplain Larry Randolph started Canines for Christ in July 2007. It has grown to over 300 volunteers in the Tampa Bay region. The teams visit over 60 centers in the area, including Brighton Gardens, Connerston Court - New Tampa, John Knox Village, James A. Haley Veterans Hospital, Shriners Hospital for Children, Hope Lodge at Moffitt Cancer Center, and Gulfside Center for Hospice Care.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, you must complete an application, are required to have a certificate of health completed by your veterinarian, provide the AKC Canine Good Citizen or Therapy Dog Certification, and sign a liability waiver. Dogs must be two years old to enter the ministry, well-mannered, and non-aggressive.

Volunteers must be Christians, share God's message of love and hope, and, of course, be willing to spend time to visit with the patients.

Canine for Christ volunteers are needed for an upcoming event at a camp for people with disabilities. Volunteers can choose from Monday, May 29 from 2-4pm or Tuesday, May 30 from 1-3pm. The camp is located at Lake Aurora Christian Camp, 237 Goldenbough Rd., Lake Wales, Florida 33898.

Umbrella Policies

from major claims and lawsuits. As a result, it helps protect your assets and your future. Without a PUP, you could be stuck paying the remaining balance of a claim out of pocket.

Underlying liability limits must be 250/500 on auto and $300,000 on home. An umbrella policy only pays once your basic liability limits have been exhausted. The claim will be made against you, the policyholder, on behalf of the wronged party. Then your insurance company may pay the settlement amount up to the limits of your coverage.

Many people with auto and homeowner's insurance wonder if a personal umbrella policy (PUP) is really necessary. If you own property or have other assets, you should strongly consider umbrella insurance.

A PUP covers a much higher limit and goes above and beyond liability directly relating to your home, boat, jet ski, RV, golf cart, and auto. The main purpose of your umbrella policy is to protect your assets from an unforeseen event, such as a tragic accident in which you are held responsible for damages or bodily injuries.

You don't have to be a millionaire to need that much coverage. For example, say you're hosting an outdoor dinner party and a balcony collapses, injuring several people. If those people are unable to work for a few months, you could be responsible for their unearned income, along with any medical bills. This can quickly add up to more than the $100,000 or $300,000 liability limits on your homeowners policy.

The personal umbrella policy would kick in at this point. It is designed to save you

The average personal umbrella policy with limits of $1 million typically runs about $380 annually. Considering that 13% of bodily injury liability settlements are $1 million or more, an umbrella policy is definitely worth it.

You may also cover your business with commercial umbrella insurance. Similar to a personal umbrella, a business umbrella policy picks up where your business auto liability, general liability or other liability coverage stops. Rather than increasing total limits, umbrella insurance is an inexpensive way to provide extra coverage.

How Dare You Create A World So Full of Misery

I recently read the interview of the Englishman Stephen Fry (an atheist) who commented on a question asked him by Gay Byrne as to what he would do if he actually met God at the Pearly Gates?

Mr. Fry's answer was this "I'd say, bone cancer in children?" What's that about? "How dare you create a world to which there is such misery that is not our fault? It's not right and utterly, utterly, evil." He then said, "Why should I respect a capricious mean-minded stupid God who creates a world so full of injustice and pain?"

When I read comments like this, it always hurts my heart that so many have such a perverted view of God and His doings. God has been accused of much over the years, when indeed he has nothing to do with the evil in this world. Now I know God can defend Himself. But I felt I would like to respond.

In the book of Genesis, Adam and Eve were given the (privilege) authority to rule in this earth. (Genesis 2:27-28). Unfortunately, they disobeyed God by partaking of the one tree they were told NOT to eat, BECAUSE if they did, they would surely die. (Genesis 2:16-17) The devil came into this world to steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10)

The Bible tells us that through one man's offense (Adam) judgment (death) passed upon all men. However, it was through one Man's righteous act (Jesus) the free gift came to all of us. This sin-fallen world was NEVER God's intention, but HE would NEVER override Man's will. His heart was broken when Adam and Eve disobeyed.

He had warned them so as NOT to have this world ravaged with the likes of that serpent. His desire was a creation that would fellowship with Him and never have to endure the pain of any injustice, evil, pain, or disease.

The question, Stephen Fry, is NOT "How dare you create a world to which there is such misery that is not our fault," and "Why a world so full of injustice and pain?"

The question SHOULD be, "Why have you been so gracious to a world that has continuously defied your will and your ways, and yet you STILL sent your Son to die in their place, so that fellowship would be restored?" Food for thought!!

We invite you to come join us at River of Life Church in Lutz, Florida. Our services begin at 10:30am on Sundays. We would love to have you come!

Honoring Mom

ing time for herself too that when it comes time to spend time with her husband, she just feels too tired and wants to go bed.

Then I hear the other side of moms who do take action and invest time in themselves. They learn that it's not selfish and it's actually for the family too because when mom is happy and feeling good, that affects the whole family. I have had husbands of our clients tell me, "Thank you for giving me my wife back! She is happy again!" A good visual is that if you keep pouring out the water in a pitcher and you never put water back in, that pitcher will not have any more water to pour out for others.

It's so important as mothers that we take time to take care of ourselves, too. When we do this, our bodies are strong and we have lots of energy and stamina to be the super woman that mothers are! Women are amazing, and being a mother is a whole other level. Give yourself the gift of taking care of you, too! You are not only doing it for yourself, but you are also doing it for your family.

You want to be able to play with those children on the ground and easily get back up, to be able to watch them graduate, to hold their new baby and babysit those grandchildren without being bogged down with a bunch of medical issues. I know it might be a ways down the road, but thinking about what that woman looks like now is important. Most people that deal with medical issues wish they would have taken care of their body. I know some medical issues are not avoidable but doing something to prevent the ones that are is the key.

Give yourself or you mother the gift of health and wellness and contact us for a complimentary Body Transformation Analysis so you can see and feel how much better you will feel when you are healthier!

Thank you so much for the Disney on Ice tickets. The timing was perfect. My five year-old grandson's visit just happened to coincide with the ticket dates. He absolutely LOVED the show. The look on his face when the show began was priceless. I definitely had a mesmerized little boy in my presence. The show was entertaining from start to finish. Everything was perfect from the costumes to the music. Afterward he asked me, as well as his mom, what were our favorite parts of the show. My daughter and I agreed that we liked the Little Mermaid best. I asked him about his favorite, and he enthusiastically replied, "Cars!" This was a great way to kick off his weeklong visit. Thank you so much for the opportunity to win the tickets.

Sincerely,
Bonnie C.

My daughter and I were the happy recipients of four Disney On Ice tickets. My husband couldn't make any of the showtimes, so we invited some friends of ours and gave them two tickets. Their mom even had Disney ears made for the occasion! My Grace (the little one in the top picture) just turned 2 and she was mesmerized by all the music and skating and dancing for two whole hours! She loved hanging out with her friends. What a great birthday experience! Thank you from Rebecca and Grace!

Is There A Biblical Basis for Taxes?

James H. Willis, III

Founder and President

The Willis Agency, Inc

813-948-9109

Jim@TheWillisAgency.com

www.TheWillisAgency.com

1 Peter 5:7

The short answer is yes! Even Jesus speaks about taxes directly, reference

Luke 20:25: "He said to them, 'Then give back to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's.'"

Romans 13:7: "Give to everyone what you owe them: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor."

You see, how I pay taxes is a direct reflection of my integrity. Here are a couple beliefs that I have:

1) Paying income taxes is not a "bad" thing
2) Integrated tax planning is critical to long term financial success! I work very hard for you on this, it's what I do.

3) Income tax planning requires legally specialized expertise. What is good for one home may be different from another.

4) Getting a large refund check can be a sign of poor stewardship. I know, I know, some people like that "surprise lump sum." Nevertheless.

5) Even Jesus and the disciples paid taxes to the Romans, and we know they disliked the Romans.

"That info in itself is a lot to think about and process. Sorry. I do not have room to elaborate, but we can set aside some time to get together. But wait, there is more. I want to give you several "conceptual" ideas. Here we go!

- There is a direct correlation between income and income taxes due

- Tax reduction is a legitimate goal

- Tax reduction should never be the "tail that wags the dog." Examples: Tax shelters and mortgage deductions.

- Inability to pay taxes that are due is symptomatic of poor planning. Taxes should never be a source of cash flow problems.

- Tax reduction and debt reduction are in direct conflict with one another. In order to decrease your taxes, you must decrease your income, which decreases your ability to pay off debt.

- Ultimately, all income, from whatever source, is taxed.

- Tax avoidance and Tax evasion are two entirely different things

- Disagreeing with the government is not a legitimate reason to not pay taxes

2 Corinthians 4:2: "Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways; we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God."

And I also send you this verse, which is a great set up for next month, Investing!

Proverbs 13:11 "Dishonest money dwindles away, but whoever gathers money little by little makes it grow."

I know this is a stressful topic on so many levels. Planning and expecting to pay taxes helps avoid increased trauma. Personally I wish there was a flat tax, but that is just me. Keep it simple and everybody plays.

Caring for you and yours,

Jim

Garden Connect

By Steve and Jeanne Wolfe from White Dove Farm worm castings with soil and pat it around the little plants. Remember not to put these before the seedlings become established or else they will not be able to get in line with the sun and will not flourish.

I noticed that I have lost some plants due to lack of moisture, so go searching for leaves since people will put bags of leaves by their curbside and don't mind at all if someone carries them away. Find a source for horse manure. It is possible by ringing the doorbells of those who own horses and politely ask when and where you can have some of that black gold. We put a black garbage bag into a garbage can and don't fill it too much because it will be too heavy.

My friend and I would get five gallon buckets and a shovel. Three quarters full was what we could handle. Toss the mixture into a low pile, toss a bag of topsoil on it, then let the sun dry and mix with a rake. Caution, though, never put green manure of any type near your plants. Let it ferment and cure first.

When you decide to use this wonderful mixture, pitch it around your plants, not up against them. Water the mixture well. Try a new kind of seed this year, and you will be amazed to see it grow. I particularly was astonished when I saw and said, "What is this?" Guess what! It was Brussels sprouts. Share your experiences with us. Have you ever eaten Kohlrabi? It's great! Is your family resistant to eating vegetables? I make a vegetable pie that everyone loves. Email me for the recipe at whitedovefarm@yahoo.com.

Send us your RSVP request for the May 20th Garden Connect Event. Be blessed!!

Heartworms in Pets

Heartworm disease in pets is easy to prevent but difficult and costly to cure. Left untreated it is potentially fatal. Dogs and cats contract heartworm disease when they are bitten by an infected mosquito. When that mosquito bites your pet it transmits the larvae to your pet. Left untreated the infant larvae will live in the bloodstream and heart and develop into mature adults producing more microfilariae (microscopic heartworm larvae). The heartworms can live 5 to 7 years in a dog and 2 to 4 years in a cat. The heartworms will block major blood vessels that support the kidneys, liver and lungs and will live in the right side of the heart. This can cause significant damage even before the pet shows any symptoms.

What are the symptoms of heartworm disease? The primary symptoms are a cough, difficulty breathing and being tired after exercise. Heartworm disease is easily prevented. Testing for heartworms is inexpensive and takes less than 10 minutes. There are many excellent products available for your dog or cat. It is important that Florida dogs and cats receive monthly heartworm prevention year round. Heartworm prevention encompasses a separate subject which I will address in a future article.

IT DEFINITELY PAID OFF TO HIRE A PROFESSIONAL.

I just wanted to let you know how happy I am with your service. My son Chris was able to pass the driving test and get his driver's license on his first try. When I came to you for help, you were quickly able to spot some incorrect techniques that Chris was using in driving and showed him better ways. He improved significantly in just a short period of time with the proper instruction. There is a big difference between someone who has a driver's license and many years driving (me) and someone who knows how to teach it. It definitely paid off to hire a professional. I felt a lot of anxiety trying to teach my son and actually held him back from learning because I was terrified of taking him into high traffic areas or on the expressway. I don't think we would have progressed much beyond driving just in the suburbs if I hadn't found your service and I really appreciate all that you did for us. I would highly recommend your driving course to anyone who has a teen or new driver.

Raising a Perfect Child

I think you get the picture. Suffice to say that child number two had a somewhat different temperament than child number one, resembling, at times, the sweet and pleasing manner of a cat caught in a ventilator fan. It wasn't long after my friend gave up on his book project.

Raising the perfect child is the title of this article. But it's a trick title. If it were about what it sounds like, I would certainly need to save my fingers for a more honest venture, like say, counting ballots. I mean, my wife and I sure didn't pull off that feat with any of our three children. Great daughters! But, alas, a little more like their parents than we could have wished. Truth be told, my parents missed the mark about as far as my first tee shot did the fairway.

Gang, trace this tendency back up the old family tree as far as you want. Take it clear up to Mr. and Mrs. Noah. Continue right to the door of Adam and Eve. You'll find you're loaded with family tree disease as far as your family branches will stretch.

Flawed seed

And therein lies the point behind this article, the answer to the mystery behind why no parents ever prevail at raising perfect children. It's simply because the presence of imperfection is as potentially prolific in all us parents as it is in all our posterity. What was true of David is true of us all.

"Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me." (Psalm 51:5).

I'm hoping this is making some hurting mom feel at least a little bit better. I know there are some moms out there who are being very hard on yourselves for no reason this Mother's Day season. After 32 years of pastoring, I've seen plenty of self-inflicted pain of some precious moms pining because of a prodigal who was a prodigal, even when still in the womb.

What's it take to raise a perfect child?

Precious moms, please know that in the history of Earth, only one woman achieved the elusive honor of rearing a perfect prodigy. And lest you say to yourself, "Yes, which proves it can be done, but I failed," we need all to stop and consider what was and was not the reason behind her success.

"And Mary said, 'My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior. For He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant, for behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed. For He who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name.'" (Luke 1:46-49)

Blessed Mary! All generations of moms should realize how blessed she was! But upon what grounds? That she raised a perfect child? No! That is not why we rightly call Mary blessed. But we call her blessed because she was given to raise a perfect child! A child who would have been perfect if any other mother on Earth had raised Him. Oh, listen to again to her humble words, "He who is mighty has done great things for me."

It wasn't like God thought, "Okay, the world is pining in sin. It's a complete train wreck down there. Time to implement the plan. The world needs a Lamb. It needs a PERFECT Lamb. A Lamb without spot (inherent imperfection) or defect (acquired imperfection) of ANY kind! To produce this, we will need to find the perfect mom. A mom who will practice perfect parenting so as to produce a perfect prodigy. Gabriel, go find me a perfect mom to raise for Me a perfect Son to be for them a perfect Lamb and make a perfect payment for this altogether sinful and imperfect race of man."

If that were the mission, Gabriel would still be roaming around the Earth today.

A word to moms from your kids

Dear Mom, please know in your heart that, to us, you are so precious! We realize we gave you a Mission Impossible, making the assignments Peter Graves handed his team look like a trip to the beach at sunset! Because as precious and perfect as we once appeared to you when you lovingly cuddled and caressed our little 7 lb. 5 ounce selves, the sin was already there. But Mom, you loved us anyway! And you taught us right from wrong! And you believed in us! We know our failings have hurt your heart at times. But Mom, please know that to us, you were and always will be A WONDERFUL MOM!

17538 Livingston Ave., Lutz.

You are invited to our services every Sunday at 10:15. Hope to see you soon!

Memorial Day

It's the three-day weekend that officially kicks off summer vacations... a time for hanging out at the beach, barbecuing, even catching a few laps at the Indy 500. But Memorial Day is also the most solemn American holiday--a day to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice, while defending their nation.

In the Civil War, America's bloodiest chapter, over 600,000 soldiers were killed in action. Almost every community in every state suffered the loss of young men. As the war came to an end, mourners in both northern and southern states began placing flags and flowers on the graves of fallen soldiers.

The town of Waterloo, New York is officially credited with starting the holiday. On May 5, 1866, its citizens closed their shops and businesses so that everyone could decorate the graves of the men killed during the war. Then an old war general had an idea. John A. Logan, leader of the Union Veteran Association, spearheaded an effort to unite all the decoration services into one national holiday, designating May 30th as Decoration Day.

On the first national Decoration Day in 1868, 5,000 war widows, orphans, and other mourners gathered at Arlington National Cemetery. They placed flowers and ribbons on the 20,000 graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers. Two future Presidents and fellow Union veterans, Ulysses S. Grant and James A. Garfield, attended the ceremony.

Throughout the 19th century, Decoration Day grew. Ceremonies were held in major Civil War battlefields like Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and Antietam field in Maryland. By the end of the century, the holiday was renamed Memorial Day.

But war wounds ran deep; most southern states refused to commemorate a holiday they regarded as honoring Union soldiers. So each state commemorated their war dead with different Confederate Decoration Days. Several southern states continue the tradition to this day.

WWI ushered in the age of modern warfare. America lost over 130,000 soldiers in the global conflict. This shared experience finally bonded America's north and south. When the war ended, May 30th became a day to honor all American soldiers who died in battle as far back as the Revolutionary War. America interred its first Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery on Armistice Day in 1921.

Every Memorial Day, this soldier and other unknown soldiers are honored with a wreath-laying ceremony conducted by the President or Vice President.

They are reminders of all those who've never made it home. Memorial Day became a federal holiday in 1971, when Congress shifted it from May 30th to the fourth Monday in May, giving federal workers a three-day weekend.

All across America, veterans and civilians still gather in parades and vigils to remember the generations who gave their lives for their nation's freedom.

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

Pure Health &amp; Fitness Studios

Samantha Taylor

"I've been one of their longest-running advertisers for thirteen years and have been absolutely amazed with my experience. This paper has been the BIGGEST factor God has used for my success as a Personal Trainer and Weight Loss Expert.

Thanks to THIS paper, it's contributed to me successfully training over 4,500 women. Even though I got calls from day one, the thing I've been lately amazed with is how many loyal readers this paper has.

I get calls from people that have been reading my articles for years and since they are now ready to get in better shape and better health, they call me because I've been the trusted source they've seen for so many years in THIS paper.

Even in tough times, I've never, nor will I ever, stop advertising in this paper. It's been a tool that has built my business to be one of the most successful Personal Training Studios around. Thank you, Dunndead Publications! I wouldn't have done it without you!"

JESUS is not our Religion, he is our Savior...

Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. Hebrews 11:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:3 "Let there be light..."

Thanks to the advertisers, our Operating Partners, we are making a difference in the community.

Their support of the Gazettes has brought us to the crossroads in Bible ministries that our forefathers forged into our Constitution, IN GOD WE TRUST. As a Christian publication, we are on a mission to exceed expectations with outstanding hard work by connecting with Christian businesses and churches. Our uplifting editorials are mainly contributions from local businesses, churches, and events.

Let all that you do be done in love. 1st Corinthians 16:14

Help us to continue to connect with other Christian businesses and churches that would benefit with exposure in the Gazettes and receive a $100 referral or make a donation to your church. Please help our advertisers to monitor their results by letting them know you saw them in the Gazettes!

Thank you Jesus!
and our Operating Partners!
