Unanswered Questions?

Should Christians Vote?

This topic has the potential to be divisive when you're talking about religion, and when you add a political overtone sometimes it has the potential for fireworks. Rather than turning this into a debate of opinion about who is right and who is wrong, let's see what the Bible has to say about voting.

Psalms 146:3: "Do not put your trust in princes, human beings who cannot save."

The Bible says that there is no supreme answer to the woes of the world. But how do we as Christians relate to what is about to unfold in 2018 in an intense and inflammatory political season?

Should we run in the other direction? After all, we're citizens of another kingdom, and others think we should use our influence for good and have every church become a polling station.

This is not about any party or person, it's about principles and attitudes. The Bible says we are primarily citizens of another kingdom.

John 18:36: Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But for now, my kingdom is from another place."

This is letting us know that Jesus will someday reign supreme in this world. But right now there's a contest between two principal leaders, Jesus and the Devil, with a lot of people in between.

Luke 17:20: Jesus replied, "The coming of the kingdom of God is not something that can be observed, nor will people say, 'Here it is,' or 'There it is,' because the kingdom of God is within you."

What a Beautiful Legacy!

Abby's Health & Nutrition creation of the human body and how we live and function largely as a result of nutrition and supplementation.

To say that she has helped and affected thousands of lives is an understatement. Our employees relate stories they've heard over the years that always amaze us and generally they are unsolicited coming from our regular customers.

Many of you have been wonderful to ask about her over the last few months and wanting to extend your well wishes for her recovery. True to who she was, Abby has always been a very private person and chose to spend her last days with her loved ones and wanted no fuss made over her condition. With her staff, customers, and community in mind, over the last five years we have worked together to ensure a seamless transition, with

Abby Sayler never liked to be the center of attention even though she ran an incredibly successful enterprise in Carrollwood for 21 years. Her passion has always been sharing and teaching the miraculous this eventuality in mind. She never wanted her legacy of health to end with her passing, so Abby's will continue to be the leader in "Better Health Through Education."

Four years ago, with her legacy in mind, she donated property in Lutz to be used as a community farm in perpetuity, where families can grow their own organic food and learn to live a more sustainable lifestyle.

Thank you for your kind sentiments for our wonderful Abby and thank you for your continued patronage of her legacy of health. She was an educator, a visionary, someone that always put others before herself. Throughout her career she helped many people overcome all kinds of health challenges and find hope. God introduced me to her in 1997 and for the last 21 years, I have had the privilege to work alongside her and learn from one of the most brilliant minds when it came to how the body works. She was my mentor, my friend, and my business partner and I thank God for her every day. Although she will not be with us here on Earth, she is no longer suffering and surrounded by love. Her vision and legacy will live on from generation to generation. I love you, Abby. You will be greatly missed. Thank you for your unselfish contribution to our community.

Dr. Dan Coffin
Pastor, River of Life Church

Have you ever been involved in an auto accident? Most of us have and the results are always unpleasant. First there is the trauma of bodily injury that may disable us, at least for a season, to one degree or another. If we are fortunate enough to survive the crash without injury we still have to deal with the auto repair, the insurance coverage, car rental, towing and garage issues. Accidents can create a whole host of problems that consume our time and money.

While auto accidents were not a part of the Apostle Paul's world or the church at Philippi to whom he wrote, Paul still warns of the problems caused by collisions. In Philippians 2:2 he writes, "I beseech Euodias and beseech Syntyche that they be of the same mind in the Lord." The Greek word Paul uses here translated "beseech" carries the idea of begging, exhorting, entreating, or to try to appease by entreaty. In other words Paul was trying to get these women to come together and "be of the same mind." Apparently, there was a strong disagreement between them and Paul knew the damage it could cause in the church.

Even the names of these women reveal the contention between them. Euodias means, "fine traveling" and Syntyche means "an accident". When these two got together there was a collision that brought about trouble in the church.

Have you ever been traveling along and all is well until, suddenly someone brings strife and trouble into your home, business, workplace, or even ministry that upsets everyone involved? Your focus and energy is now expended on trying to restore peace and heal the breach instead of accomplishing the business at hand. Fortunately, we have instructions in the scriptures of how to handle just such a situation.

First of all we need to recognize where strife comes from. The Bible is not vague on this subject, "only by pride comes contention" (Pr. 13:10). Someone said, "pride makes excuses, but humility makes adjustments." (unknown) We must take responsibility for our part in a contentious situation. Usually, people get their feelings hurt and become offended because of what someone else said or how their actions were perceived. We can choose to forgive those who offended us and humble ourselves before God. Our goal should always be to restore the relationship instead of defend ourselves. When we choose to walk in humility we receive the grace of God (His power, help and favor) for God, "resist the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (Jms. 4:6).

Secondly, we should know that the person who brought the hurtful words or actions is hurting himself or herself. Most people are not trying to be difficult, but are reacting out of their own past hurts and hardships. They are filled with fear and lash out to protect themselves not wanting to be hurt again.

The devil is real and his wicked plots are to divide and destroy, but we overcome him with the truth of God's word and putting into practice his commands, "Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be put away from you with all malice: and be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you" (Eph. 4:31-32).

We may not be able to avoid all quarreling and disagreements, but if we know that the end result of strife is, "confusion and every evil work" (Jms. 3:16) we might be more likely to follow Paul's admonition, which says, "as much as lives in you, live peaceably with all men" (Rm. 12:18).

The Problems With Collisions

We may collect some dents and dings in our fenders and have our paint scratched on occasion, but by walking humbly and in the love of God we can avoid painful and expensive collisions as we enjoy the journey on the road of life.

50 YEARS OF rescuing children

To God be the glory, great things He has done! This year marks the 50th anniversary of Hope Children's Home. 50 years ago, in 1968, Lyndon B. Johnson was President of the United States, Apollo 8 was orbiting the moon, and a gallon of gas was 34 cents! Times sure have changed in the 50 years that have come and gone, but some things don't change. In 1968 there was a need for a place called Hope to rescue the generation of children that were abused, abandoned, and neglected - children with heartbreaking stories of desperate situations. These heartbreaking stories have been met with the glorious love of God and children have been given what we all crave - hope. Meals have been provided. Beds and living space has been given. Children's lives have been impacted by Christ for all eternity. The need in 2018 is no different. We still encounter children with heartbreaking stories. We still meet those stories with the love of God. He is still sending miracles and providing all that we could ever hope for, and He uses people like you. Would you consider giving a 50th Anniversary gift? Please contact Hope Children's Home at (813)961-1214 or visit HopeChildrensHome.org/Donate to continue to help rescuing the next generation.

Wisdom, Part 1

Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

I thought it might be wise with all that is going on in our country to spend some time in Proverbs looking at some of the wisdom Solomon has for us. The Bible called Solomon the wisest man who ever lived. I think we could all use more wisdom trying to navigate our way through the pressures of work, family, finances, career, and relationships.

The Bible has a word to describe the person who navigates life well. That word is “wise.” I want to take some time and talk about this much needed virtue.

A person can be knowledgeable without being wise. It’s not the goal of the Bible to teach us information so we can simply grow in knowledge. The Bible was given to us for our application. When we apply Biblical truth into our lives, we experience a transformation in our lives.

Before we begin, there’s some background you need to know. The book of Proverbs was written around 900 B.C. yet it’s filled with wisdom for our lives today. The author is primarily Solomon.

Every proverb has three distinct and vital components to it:

1. Every proverb is a timeless truth, not temporary advice.

This is something that is ongoing. It’s not a quick fix. It’s something that will continue to carry you through. Let me demonstrate how easy it is for you to remember proverbs.

I’m going to start and you finish it for me.

Look before you... A penny saved... The apple doesn’t fall far... Can’t teach an old dog...

Proverbs, whether Biblical or secular, help us for the long haul.

Proverbs 22:7 “The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.”

What a timeless truth written 3,000 years ago and yet just as appropriate to us today. What if we really believed what Solomon writes? What if we actually put it into practice?

Would there be fewer arguments in our home, and less stress in our life? Would generosity come more naturally?

2. It’s a general principle, not an unconditional promise.

Proverbs 22:6 “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” KJV

Nine out of ten times that’s what will happen, but the fact that occasionally there’s an exception shows us that it is not a promise from God, it’s a principle from God.

The reason it becomes a principle is man’s free will is thrown into the mix (the person might choose to go a totally different direction than the way their parents raised them).

3. It’s specific information that has a broad application.

These principles can be taught in business settings, in budgeting sessions, in high school classrooms. Their applications stretch beyond a church setting. Each of these proverbs are morally and ethically sound. When we study these principles, they give us a glimpse of God’s character and what’s important to him.

Solomon’s words are needed today. I think it’s important that we understand how Solomon became the wisest. Israel was at its highest point of peace and economic prosperity. The Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and said to him, “Ask for whatever you want and I will give it to you.” Read 1 Kings 3.

Solomon asks for wisdom, for a discerning heart. The Lord is pleased with Solomon’s request. God says, “I will give you a wise and discerning heart. But because you didn’t ask for some other things,” he said, “I’m also going to give you those things too.” He gives him a bonus because he’s so pleased with his request. And Solomon shows his wisdom in how he governs Israel.

Solomon says the foolish person despises wisdom and instruction. A lot of us do foolish things. How many of us spend about as much as you earn, occasionally hurt someone we love, and are full of pride and slow to ask for help? If you do any of those things, the Bible says you’re foolish. Don’t be a fool—get wisdom. Scripture says:

1. Fools act before they think.

Proverbs 13:16: “Wise people think before they act. Fools don’t—and they even brag about their foolishness.”

2. Fools spend all they earn.

Proverbs 21:20 “In the house of the wise are stores of choice food and oil, but the foolish man devours all he has.” He eats it all, he spends it all. “But everybody else does it!” Well, everybody else is foolish.

3. Fools hurt those they love.

Proverbs 14:1 “The wise woman builds her house, but with her own hands the foolish one tears it down.”

She belittles them, she nags, she controls. What does he do? He’s domineering and angry. The foolish one tears and hurts those they love.

4. Fools think they know it all.

Proverbs 12:15 “Fools think their own way is right, but the wise listen to others.”

Scripture says, “How much better to get wisdom than gold, to choose understanding rather than silver!” Wisdom is better than the most valuable thing you can get in this world. Proverbs will teach us to hunger for it.

Until next month,

The Great Florida Outdoors

Dr. Robert Norman, Clinical Professor, Dermatology, Nova Southeastern University

What is this called?
The Tampa butterfly orchid is native to Florida and the Bahamas. It is an epiphyte most commonly found growing on southern live oak. Other homes include cypress, pond apples, mangroves, pines, and palms in tropical hardwood hammocks and along rivers. It has dark green 7 cm pseudobulbs with narrow foliage up to 16 cm in length and 2 cm in width with flowers that are alternate, 2.5 cm in diameter, and fragrant. The mature plants produce a branched inflorescence in summer containing several flowers with green to bronze sepals and petals surrounding a white lip with a purple dot.

Encyelia is from the Greek - enkykleoma “to encircle” and tampensis - “Tampa”, first described by John Torrey in 1846. The name “butterfly” orchid was given because of how they sometimes appear in a breeze. Remember to look up when exploring the Florida landscape!

What causes the color change on the high water mark?
“Lichens as Indicators of Hydrology Lichens have long provided a means to date historical, naturally-occurring events because they are long-lived, have a relatively slow radial growth rate, and have different species-specific tolerances to inundation (Benedict 2009). In forested wetland systems, elevations of past water levels can be inferred by ‘reading’ the history of lichen lines on tree boles. An understanding of the relationship between lichen lines and recurring water elevations is particularly important at sites for which there are either no hydrodata, or no hydrodata exist for the time period of interest.

At one such site, in one of the few studies of lichen lines ever published in central Florida, Hale (1984) observed a corticolous (i.e. ‘on bark’) lichen line ‘move’ up a bald cypress (Taxodium distichum) tree bole over time. The apparent upward migration of the lichen line was in response to consecutively higher flooding events along the Peace River in Polk County, Florida. Hale’s study was the first published work in Florida that associated sustained, elevated water levels with chlorosis, exfoliation, and disintegration of lichens on trees.

He found that in order to form a lichen line, water must remain at an elevated level for at least seven days to sufficiently kill lichen thalli below that level. (Tim Hull “Using Lichens as Indicators of Hydrology in Mixed Pond-Cypress (Taxodium ascendens) - Pine (Pinus sp.) Wetlands in Central Florida”

Lichen is sensitive to water and chemical changes and is an indicator of pollution.

What is this fascinating tree?
This is sweetgum (Liquidambar styraciflua). It can grow up to 148 ft. The leaves of the Sweetgum is hand shaped, lobed with typically five leaf tips with serrated leaf margins. The fruits are spiky capsule fruits that contain up to 40 capsules and in autumn the whole ground under the tree is often covered with seeds.

The branches are light brown and often corky and the bark (Sweet-Gum is also called Alligator-Wood) is strong furrowed and light brown. The Sweetgum’s resinous sap running from the wounded bark was previously used in chewing gum production.

Get out and explore the Great Florida Outdoors!

Christianity and Mental Health:
It's a Complicated Matter

According to the National Institute of Mental Health, one in five adults in the United States is living with some type of mental illness (<https://www.nimh.nih.gov/health/statistics/mental-illness.shtml>). At times, we can get so busy with the normal demands of our everyday lives that we may not even notice these symptoms creeping up on us until we are feeling overwhelmed and burnt out. This can also be true even within the church. A little-known fact is that even Mother Teresa suffered with doubt and thoughts of rejection.

In 1957 she acknowledged this to an advisor noting, “I am told God lives in me—and yet the reality of darkness and coldness and emptiness is so great that nothing touches my soul.”

<https://www.catholiceducation.org/en/faith-and-character/faith-and-character/mother-teresas-long-dark-night.html>

Mental health in the church is particularly difficult. There are competing viewpoints and stigma associated with seeking help. At times, viewpoints of “good things happen to good people and bad things happen to bad people” prevent others from seeking help. There is a fear of being judged, ridiculed, and criticized or there is a general misinformation about mental illness and it is believed it can be “prayed away.”

Churches may have some support available, but not all churches are equipped to minister to those afflicted with mental illness. There are times when a professional will be necessary to help with areas that require more assistance. 1 Peter 4:10 notes that “Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God’s grace in its various forms.”

What has been clear throughout our religious teachings is that we are relational creatures. We are meant to seek relationships, guidance, and support with our fellow brothers and sisters. However, when life brings us to a stage where more than relational support is needed, a professional can help. Mental illness can have many different symptoms. It can look as though you are fatigued, having a loss of interest, or isolating from others. On the contrary, you can look like you are always on the go, having racing thoughts that never seem to quiet down, have a shortened fuse, be perceived as impatient or, at times, irritable. Professionals can help determine the importance of these symptoms and assist with strategies to help cope with them.

If you would like help in some of these areas, contact James Tickal, MSW, at 813-336-1790. Please visit him at <https://www.restoreandrenewcounseling.com> to find out more about how he may be able to help you and your specific needs.

One of the things I love about my career is I get to see the extreme difference in a woman’s life, who she is before she met me and after she does our program. It truly is amazing! Let me tell you about Kate, for this is such an amazing story of how a woman’s life is impacted. When I first met Kate, she was pretty grumpy because she had lost hope. She was 64, had lost and gained back 60 lbs. three times, hadn’t worked out in 40 years, and had just given up. As I told her about our programs and the results she could get, she was so beaten down by her past failures that it was hard for her to believe she could do it. After we talked about the options, she looked at me with a stern look and said, “I don’t know if this is going to work but I am going to give it a try because you sure seem confident that you can help me.” I still smile when I think of that day because of who she is now, compared to who she was, it is quite miraculous and I am so proud of her! About 6 months after she joined, she ran up to me beaming from ear to ear and practically tackled me, hugging me so hard she almost cracked me half! She said, “I just have to tell you how much you have changed my life!” She could not stop smiling! She grabbed my arm and as tears started to swell up in her eyes she exclaimed, “I just have to thank you, you have given me my life back!” “I have lost 41 lbs. and 5 sizes! I have SO much energy, I don’t even know what to do with it and I love to exercise now after 40 years of not doing it! Thank you!!!” She stood to the side and opened her jacket she said, “Look how flat my stomach is now! I used to look pregnant!” I exclaimed my absolute excitement for her as she gave me another huge hug. The great thing is, she has now lost 60 lbs. and has kept it off for over a year. She sent me a picture of herself on her 66th birthday zip lining, mountain climbing, and horseback riding and she said, “Is this what 66 year olds do on their birthday?!” I said, “Fit ones do!” She said it was the best vacation she has ever had in her life! Now THAT is why I do what I do because I love to see women’s lives impacted. She was so transformed I asked her to be a guest on our TV show we have on ABC. On the show she said, “My husband says he has wife back now and that I am the happy, energetic woman he fell in love with and he is so glad to see me happy again. I can’t even tell you what this program has meant to my life. I feel and look 20 years younger and I know I will keep it off this time and that feels wonderful.” The difference between her previous situation and her having an amazing transformation was that she took action. That is the key for many of you reading this article. If you really want to get results you need to take action and do something different then you have been doing. A good place to start is to do what Kate did, set up a FREE Body Transformation Analysis to see how we can help you. We have 5 locations, newest one in Palm Harbor. The Importance of Microchip Identification

Did you know??? Getting lost is the number one cause of death for family pets. One in three pets will go missing in its lifetime and without identification 90% of lost pets never return home.

Fortunately, these sad statistics can be changed. Microchip identification is a relatively painless procedure that does not require surgery. It is a simple, one-time insertion of a small chip under the skin between the shoulders of cats and dogs. Once a microchip is implanted it is permanent. The microchip number is then registered in a database and owner's contact information is associated with the pet's microchip number. Should a lost pet be recovered by a rescue group, veterinary hospital or animal shelter, the pet will be scanned, and the chip number can be matched to the database. Then, the owner can be notified that their pet has been found!

The HomeAgain® Pet Recovery Program which we use at Sunshine Animal Hospital helps recover 10,000 lost pets each month!

A HomeAgain® Microchip can be the most important gift you give your pet. It will give you peace of mind to know what you have given your pet is its best chance to return home safely.

An Act of Kindness:: The Good Samaritan

Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he travelled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

With that said, is there anything wrong with feeling some emotions of patriotism? How did Jesus feel when He prayed, “Oh, Jerusalem, Jerusalem how often?” The concept of voting and choosing leaders is actually Biblical.

Deuteronomy 1:13: Moses said, “Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will make them head over you.”

Trying to find a replacement for Judas, the two cast lots.

Acts 1:23-26: “So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. Then they prayed, ‘Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs.’ Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias, so he was added to the eleven apostles.”

Acts 6:3: “Therefore brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, which we may appoint over this business.”

It may not be clear on how they came up with the seven deacons for nominees, but they came up with seven names. One of the seven was Nicholas of Antioch, a convert who later went bad, whom you can read in Revelation about the doctrine of the Nicolaitans. Nicholas started out good, full of the Holy Spirit, but when he when bad the disciples decided, “We’re not going to vote for anyone ever again because they could go bad.”

This may have not been clear thinking on their part because, after all, who made Lucifer? Was he a good angel? But going bad was his responsibility. Though the people said, “Give us a king.” The people didn’t pick Saul. God picked Saul and then filled him with the Holy Spirit, and for a while, he was a good king. But then pride went to him and he went bad, so did God make a mistake?

God picked Saul because of his free will to do good, so He entrusted him and filled him with the Holy Spirit until pride crept into his heart. The point is, God does not pick bad behavior people unless you’re born again. A good example of this is in the New Testament. Saul of Tarsus had been converted along the Damascus road where Jesus restored his sight in Acts 9, then later changed his name to Paul.

People are going to do their best if they keep their promises. So you can’t say you are not going to pick anybody because of what they might do. Are we really going to go through life that way? As Christians, you have to make your decisions based on biblical teachings and compare them to what you are hearing at the time and what you know and pray for the best. There were times in the 1800’s where political parties were extremely divided.

Paul said in 1 Corinthians 3:3-4: “For you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and division among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?”

As Christians, we shouldn’t be doing any of that in the house of the Lord, for judgment does not fall upon you, only God. But there are biblical principles and issues that Christians should support and demonstrate. We are to respect his cities and political systems and our nation established by God. Good or bad, this is how we get leaders. They are picked by the people. So if people don’t represent their biblical values in their government, you’re going to get what you deserve. When someone says I’m voting this way, or that way, just say “Praise the Lord.” We live in a country where we are free to make those choices. You shouldn’t feel like you have to twist anybody’s arm to think like you.

Paul says in Romans 13:1-2: “Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God.

Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.”

When the children of Israel were sent off to Babylon because of their bad behavior, they didn’t like the idea, but God said: “You’re going to be there for 70 years.”

Jeremiah 29:5-7: “Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit. Take wives and beget sons and daughters. Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive.”

He’s saying, “You’re going to be citizens of that country. Be good citizens even though you are children of Israel. Pray for the peace of that country.” Because what happens in that country is going to affect you. While you are in Babylon, He said, “You ought to care about Babylon and pray for Babylon because what happens in Babylon is going to happen to you.” So as Americans, and Christians, we have dual citizenship, and as children of Christ, we’ve got to occupy till He comes back. So plan for 1,000 years, and live like you might die tomorrow.

There’s a story in 2 Kings 20-1-10 in the Bible where Hezekiah was sick and God worked a miracle and healed him. And to prove the miracle, the sun went backward 10 degrees (Isaiah 39) when the ambassadors came to Babylon to find out about their God.

But instead of Hezekiah showing them the God of Israel, he showed them all his stuff. Isaiah came to him later and said, “What did they see in your house?” He said, “Oh, I showed them all my stuff.” He said, “You didn’t show them and tell them about God?” “Ah, no.” He said, “Thus saith the Lord, the day’s coming when the Babylonians will come to take your sons and make them eunuchs in the palace of Babylon.” As in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. “Everything you showed them is going to be carried off. Hezekiah said, “Good in this is the work of the Lord. At least there will be peace in my day.”

He may as well said, “You know, I don’t care about what the government does with the environment, as long as I still have resources in my day.” Nevertheless, who we will be electing will have consequences for generations to come. The reason you are free now is that many lives were shed in World War I and World War II, and because of America, more and more countries have had a democratic representation and the privilege to vote.

Some people think by not voting, they won’t be linked to what happens or what these people do in office. But, you might be linked by not voting anyway because this too will influence the outcome. Actually, not voting is a form of voting. So when policies and leadership are being chosen, we ought to pray for wisdom to make intelligent choices for the proclamation of the gospel.

Jesus said, “Occupy until I come.” Luke 11:23. “He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.”

So as Christians, you may have to get involved, for we live in a country where rich, poor, no matter who you are, you have the privilege of that one vote. 1 Timothy 2:1-2 tells us that we should care about who our leaders are, so we might have a quiet and peaceable life. Edmond Burke said, “All that is required for evil to prevail is for good men to do nothing.” Romans 6:23: If the wages of sin is death, then why we are not dead yet? Because Jesus gave Himself up and bought us some time to be His disciples and work for him and to do what Jesus would do. W.W.J.D. “A Psalm of Thanksgiving; Shout happily to the LORD and to all the earth.” God bless America for which it stands. Amen.

Hello Mark Dunn & DDP News,

Thank you for sending two free tickets to the Big Cat Rescue! I invited my sister, mom, niece, and nephew. We had a great time on the kids' tour. We learned a lot about the cats and Big Cats' mission. We even heard a lion roar! We saw lynx, bobcats, leopards, tigers, and a serval. Thanks again!

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

This space could be yours!

Steven Papola, Allstate Agent By Karen McBride

Steven Papola has always wanted to serve the community. He was a police officer and a part-time insurance agent who ran a successful insurance business until the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2011. He was forced to suspend his insurance activities when he was assigned to help assist with the recovery efforts. He volunteered as a Cobra Team Member and was assigned to the Anti-Terrorist Section of the Brooklyn North Task Force.

He later moved to Florida and continued to serve the community as a police officer. Steve served with the Pinellas County Schools Police and provided Security Services for the Pinellas County Board of Education. Eventually, he became a deputy sheriff with the Pasco County Sheriff's office.

Steve was an Allstate agent from 1995-1998 before going out on his own. He has returned to Allstate insurance company as an agent in the newly opened office in Lutz. He views insurance as a natural extension of serving and protecting the public.

"A customer is a customer, whether you are wearing a uniform serving them in one capacity or wearing a suit and serving them in another capacity," said Steve.

His agency offers all facets of insurance including homeowners, property and flood insurance for both individuals and businesses, policies for automobile, boat, motorcycle, and even off-road vehicles. Life insurance, annuities, and retirement plans are covered as well. With over 10 years of experience in the insurance industry, he is able to help you in all your needs to ensure you are protected.

His office is located at 1528 Land O Lakes Boulevard, Suite 102, Lutz, FL. For more information or to schedule and appointment, call 813-995-6013 or visit <https://agents.allstate.com/steven-papola-lutz-fl.html>.

Samantha Taylor Fitness

Samantha Taylor

When my personal training career started in this area over 17 years ago, Mark Dunn called me and asked if I wanted to be a part of it. I was new in business here but knew I had to get my name out there, so this was the first media outlet I had ever advertised in. As people started to hear about what I offered, through THIS paper, my name started to get out in the community, and in a few years I became the #1 producing personal trainer in the large gym I was in, out of 2,000 trainers!

When it was time to go out on my own, God used THIS paper to give me the confidence that I could find clients outside of that gym. I knew I must, because I wanted to create an environment for women that didn’t want to be in a gym. That wanted a safe place they could work out and not feel judged. I also enjoy catering to Christian women who liked that our studio cared about that.

Now we have trained over 6,000 people, have 17 trainers, won the Small Business of the Year Award by the Chamber, give free seminars to the community, and started a meal prep service delivered to your home. We opened our 5th location in Palm Harbor, and we just moved our Wesley Chapel location into a new building that we own. We also have Land O Lakes, Carrollwood, Westchase, and more to come!

I thank God for bringing this paper into my life, and I am SO grateful, for they helped give me the original confidence that I could build this business, and look what its turned into and the amount of people we serve! The owners, Mark and Kay, are some the nicest, most genuine people you’ll ever meet and I appreciate how they honor Jesus Christ in this paper. It’s such a blessing to partner with them, and I’m happy to know that I am the longest advertiser in the last 17 years!

JESUS is not our Religion, he is our Savior...

Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. Hebrews 11:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:3 "Let there be light..."

Thanks to the advertisers, our Operating Partners, we are making a difference in the community. Their support of the Gazettes has brought us to the crossroads in Bible ministries that our forefathers forged into our Constitution, IN GOD WE TRUST. As a Christian publication, we are on a mission to exceed expectations with outstanding hard work by connecting with Christian businesses and churches. Our uplifting editorials are mainly contributions from local businesses, churches, and events.

Let all that you do be done in love. 1st Corinthians 16:14

Help us to continue to connect with other Christian businesses and churches that would benefit with exposure in the Gazettes and receive a $100 referral or make a donation to your church. Please help our advertisers to monitor their results by letting them know you saw them in the Gazettes!

*Thank you Jesus!
