AND JESUS SAID...
"No one can serve two masters."

Mammon: In the New Testament of the Bible, it is commonly thought to mean money, material wealth, or any entity that promises wealth, and it is associated with greed and the pursuit of material gain. The Gospels of Luke and of Matthew both quote Jesus using the word in a phrase often rendered in English as "You cannot serve both God and mammon."

In the Middle Ages, it was often personified as a deity and sometimes included in the seven princes of Hell. Mammon in Hebrew means "money".

Who or What is Mammon?

"...One day, the Sons of God came to attend on Him and among them was Satan. So God asked him, 'Where have you been?' Satan replied, 'Around the Earth roaming about walking to and fro on it.'" (Job: 6-8)

Don't Drift

Keith Chandler
Journey Christian Church

The theme of Hebrews is Jesus is greater, so don't give up. Maybe you're thinking about giving up. You're thinking about reverting back to your old life. If that's you, the writer of Hebrews is going to tell us why we shouldn't.

"In the past, God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways." Hebrews 1:1

Think about all the ways God spoke to his people in the Old Testament. God revealed himself in dreams, appeared in a burning bush, delivered messages through angels and wrote on walls. He even spoke through the mouth of a donkey. (anytime I think of that story, I imagine Eddie Murphy in Shrek).

It goes on to say "But in these last days, he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things..." The entire Old Testament is building up to the coming of Jesus...and Jesus was the heir of all things "and through whom also he (Jesus) made the universe." Hebrews 1:2

He's saying, from the beginning to the end it all belongs to Jesus. Verse 3 says, "The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word."

There are a lot of times when we just want to know, "What is God like?"

If you want to know what God is like, you look at Jesus. If you want to know what kind of value God placed on you, look at the way Jesus valued people. If you want to know where God is when you're suffering, look at the way Jesus cared for people who were suffering. Jesus is the exact representation of God.

It says, "After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven." Hebrews 1:3

When do you sit down?

You sit down when there's nothing left to do.

The Jewish people for centuries had sacrificed for their sins. Year after year, they pushed back their sins for another year because the task was NEVER completed. When Jesus came, he offered himself as a sacrifice once and for all. And then he sat down.

It was finished! The point is, Jesus is greater. He accomplished everything and then sat down. Then the writer begins to explain to us how Jesus is superior to the angels.

(Read Hebrews 1:4-14) The bottom line... angels are just messengers of God.

"We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away." Hebrews 2:1

He is giving us a warning. Do not drift away from what you know is true. All of us tend to drift. If we're not careful, we will drift from God's purpose for our life.

Drift... it is slow, incremental, and unintentional. It doesn't happen all at once.

Nobody plans to drift. This truth is, you can't drift away from something without drifting toward something else. The key to NOT drifting is to pay attention. What you focus your attention on is where you go.

So, pay attention to the drift toward what feels spiritual instead of Jesus.

You find yourself chasing after spiritual things, but it really has nothing to do with Jesus. When you understand the Christian life, everything is spiritual. It's all about Jesus. Base your life on the word of God and what it's saying.

That becomes the focus that you go after. Jesus did not come to be your personal assistant, he came to be your personal savior.

The drift towards our old life when things get hard. For the Israelites, this was their pattern. The children of Israel left Egypt after 400 years of slavery, but they wanted to go back!

The drift towards distraction. Maybe going to church used to be a priority and now it's hit or miss whenever it's convenient for you. Maybe you used to engage in the Bible each week and now you don't. Your drifting has been caused by distraction. You've just gotten busy. It's time to pay attention. It's time to get back on course again.

A few chapters later, the author of Hebrews gives this encouragement:

"Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him, he endured the cross," You want to know what the Joy set before him was?

IT WAS YOU.

YOU were the joy set before him. He endured the cross for you. "...scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him (the one who has done all this for you) who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart." Hebrews 12:2-3

So that you will not grow weary and lose heart. Some of you are so tired. You feel like giving up.

He's saying, come back, pay attention, fix your eyes on Jesus. He's the one who began your faith, and he will perfect your faith.

Until next month,
Keith

Is Your Body Turning into a Giant Marshmallow?

Samantha Taylor
Samantha Taylor Fitness

I went out to dinner with my dad when he was 68, who is one of the most amazing people I know. Every time I talked to him, he talked about how he "was going to start working out, get serious about his exercise plan" and "really do it this time" (probably mentions it since he knows that is what I do for my career). He has been saying he is going to get fit for many years and it really hit me when I realized he was soon to be 70.

It worried me that he was getting older and he was not doing anything about his fitness. His blood sugar was sky high with type 2 Diabetes and not eating well. And I was seeing him get "softer" and more out of shape. I always saw my dad as Superman and I still do, but I was starting to get worried.

He was in the Vietnam War, always did physical labor tasks outside and owned his own business. And I always saw him with muscles, in good shape and active which probably helped me with my choice to be a trainer. But for a moment, I looked at my dad without those Superman goggles and realized that he was getting older and more out of shape and if he didn't do something instead of talk about it, he was going to pay for it big time!

I put on my personal trainer hat and expressed my concern for him. I told him if he didn't get serious about this, he was only going to get mushier and become like a big marshmallow! (I knew I could raz him a little bit because my dad has always been a jokester). He said, "Noooo, not a marshmallow!"

I said, "Yes, and if you don't want me to start to calling you Mr. Marshmallow Man, then you had better do something! And if your body turns into mush because you have no more muscles from not exercising, you are going to start losing your independence." He exclaimed, "No, not that!" I said, "Yes, do you want to be in a nursing home in 10 years with people changing your diapers?" He was aghast. "NO! I never want to lose my independence!" When he heard that, he looked more serious.

I said, "Well then, you better get serious because the life that you are living right now with not being fit, your body is not going to be able to support itself as it gets older, and you will not have your independence, you will have to have other people taking care of you. Is that what you want?"

I knew it was NOT what he wanted because he is a very independent man and his mother was 95 who still lived on her own when she passed away. He got a more serious look on his face, "No, that is not what I want. Okay, I am serious. Wait till you see me next time!" I said, "Dad, you said that last time I saw you. You need a plan, not just talk." He said, "No, I am really going to do something this time."

So we put a plan together for him. I challenged him to workout at least 2 times a week and he has been doing it! He lost 20 lbs., has been working out consistently AND his blood sugar has become so healthy they are reducing his medication! I love him so much and am grateful for him and I don't want to start seeing his body fall apart because he didn't take care of it. And for Father's Day, I took him zip lining and he is now 73!

I encourage you to inspire your family to do the same and if you are able to, share this article with your own father. We love our dads and want them to live a long, healthy life! For the ladies, if you want help stopping your body from turning into a giant squishy marshmallow, go here to set a time to meet with us.

water somehow? What if you boil the eggs? Will you change the water? Now what will you get if you add the coffee beans to the boiling water?"

For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction according to Newton's Third Law. Science is predictable. Life is not that simple. We have situations that happen to us; some good and some bad. The great thing is we can choose how we react to each situation. As they say in Jamaica, "There are no problems, only situations."

As I said in the beginning of this series, I'll share with you people who have taught me lessons in life that I have learned from to grow my business. Someday, you will remember lessons that you had no idea they were going to help you navigate through your own situations. Let me share with you how my Dad, who was first generation Italian, taught me about how to handle situations that could result in positive changes when personal growth was the outcome of the solution to any situation.

Let's transport to my first year in grade school. One day I came home from school crying. I was in first grade and my sister was in kindergarten. My dad was the president of the school board. My sister was brought to my classroom. We were called to the front of the class. The teacher told my class that we weren't going to have school for a month because our father didn't approve teacher raises for their new contract. We didn't know what a raise was or a contract. We just knew we could play and learn together. The kids boo'd us. It was horrible.

My dad didn't get mad or try to explain. Instead he asked me to fill a pot with water and put it on the stove to boil. Then he handed me carrots to chop. When I was done, he asked me to count out 12 eggs and 250 coffee beans. I finally asked him what we were making. He said "Denice, if you boil carrots, will you change the

I was so puzzled. I was crying because my friends were mean to me and he was doing some weird old Italian thing. He then said, "The carrots will get soft. We aren't people that get soft and allow others to roll over us. We also aren't people that will get hardened by tough situations. It is better to seek to understand the other person's perspective than to have them understand where you are coming from."

I asked him, "What about the coffee beans?" He said, "The beans changed the water to become something that many would share and enjoy together. Change can be good or change can be bad, but if you can make a good cup of coffee every time change happens, life is full of sweetness for all."

My dad was full of great lessons growing up. Ironically, my first grade teacher popped into my life when I ended up working at the same company her husband worked for. One day she was telling the story of her first strike. She said she was asked by the Teacher's Union to embarrass two little girls and had always regretted it. There was so much regret on her face. She didn't know I was one of the girls due to my new last name. Later that evening, I introduced myself and told her that I understood now and I forgave her. It was a beautiful moment.

My wish for you all is to become bigger Coffee Connoisseurs than my generation. I have a COFFEE CHALLENGE for you: Go to Coffee Time in Land O' Lakes. Ask the owners how making coffee has impacted their lives and the lives of their customers. Order a drink and post the video on the Facebook page called Train Up in Land O'Lakes.

TRAIN UP is a series of stories told in an attempt to bring Proverbs 22:6 to life for young people that have an entrepreneurial spirit.

An important value we teach the kids here at Hope is how to be a helper in the community. Our children have had opportunities to volunteer in a few different areas over the years, but this year we started something new – Adopt-a-Block.

Adopt-a-Block is when our children will go to a local area one Saturday each month and assist a family or business in whatever way they can. This past month they took part in cleaning out a yard that had been donated for a homeless shelter by mowing, weed-eating, and raking leaves.

Our elementary children also are participating in an Adopt-a-Block event each month. We took our younger children to an assisted living center to visit with the elderly residents and play Bingo with them. They learned a lot that day about the residents' lives and even spoke to a couple veterans from WWII. Our children cannot wait to go back next month to visit again!

Just as we want our children to go out and volunteer in their community, we also want to show them by example what a volunteer is. We are thankful for the many volunteers that help us at Hope Children's Home.

It is amazing to see the joy on our kids' faces when they realize that they have made a difference. "There is no exercise better for the heart than reaching down and lifting people up." – John Holmes

Kidz Corner: Oasis Volunteering

Hi. My name is Harley, and I recently volunteered at Oasis Pregnancy Center. I helped and packed diapers for the infants and they said I was a huge help. It's a ministry to help other babies and mommies. The mommies go to the special classes to learn how to take care of their babies, and then they get points to go shopping in the Baby Boutique room. The things that are in the baby boutique room can include different sizes of diapers, clothing, toys, and other items.

And the reason they do this is so the babies can grow up and become people who tell people about Jesus and then those people tell other people about Jesus and they tell other people and everybody goes to heaven. And even Jesus said be like the little children of the world for you will be rewarded. You can help too. You could probably help with things like packing diapers and whatever they would like you to do so they can keep helping others. You can also donate money at heartsoforoasis.org.

The people there are pretty nice. They make everybody feel welcome. They give free sonograms. A sonogram is the image produced by the ultrasound of a baby in the mommy's belly. It is a big deal because that mommy may not know that there is a baby in her belly. Children are a gift from God and they are a privilege to have.

Harley Isabel Smith is a 1st grader who has been featured on TV as a philanthropist, has a heart for evangelism, and writes monthly for the Gazette's Kid's Corner.

What Does the Bible Say About Investing?

James H. Willis, III
 Founder and President
 The Willis Agency, Inc

813-948-9109
Jim@TheWillisAgency.com
www.TheWillisAgency.com
 1 Peter 5:7

A bunch, believe it or not. It's a major theme throughout the entire Bible. Spiritually speaking, the Bible has a great deal to say about investments and investment decision making. For example, we need to be aware of 5 things in our decision process.

1st is Diversification, 2nd is Our Long Time Horizon, 3rd is What Our Professional Counsel May Suggest, 4th Ask What Are Our Motives, and 5th What Is Your Personal Perspective on Things.

Next, we need to always be aware of the investment worlds larger picture. Investments are a tool and not an end in themselves. Here are the 4 Universal "Big Pictures": 1) Economic uncertainty is always certain-isn't that true? 2) Economic prosperity is certain only in retrospect. All the education and experience is still uncertain. 3) Economic cycles (ups & downs) are normal, and to ignore them is foolish and dangerous. 4) The future cannot be predicted, we just don't know what we don't know.

When you and I are looking at investing, we should be aware of some of the quantitative variables that affect our objectives. They are our age, our temperament, our situation, the financial climate, and the timing of income and cash flow.

When we are looking for options, they are not found in company names per say, but in classes and periods; for example, by time period, the dollar cost averaging, or by asset class-in allocation or by specific investment desires and even in geography-parts of the country or world and lastly, having professional help.

Personally, at the Willis Agency, we specifically focus on the Preservation Phase of money. Long ago we realized that we were working with many retired people and they just didn't want that roller coaster ride of the ups and downs with their life savings anymore.

I also found that everybody talks about making money, but few show how to keep your money.

At the Willis Agency, that's what we do. We show people how to keep their money. I just never wanted to be that guy who you call on Monday and say, "What happened to all of my money?" I just do not like that scenario. We also have a concept of having your money match your age.

So, all my customers can say that they have never lost 1 dime of money, ever! If you want to find out how to never lose money again and how to have your money last as long as you do, give the office a call to set up an appointment 813-948-9109.

In conclusion, I have listed several verses for your review.

Prov. 24:27, Prov. 28:20, Luke 14:28, Prov. 6:6-8, Ecc. 11:1-2, Prov. 15:16, II Peter 3:4, James 1:5, Heb 11:6, Prov 4:20-27.

Caring for you and yours,
 Jim

The Great Florida Outdoors: Antlionst

Dr. Robert Norman, Clinical Professor, Dermatology, Nova Southeastern University

Who makes these circular depressions?

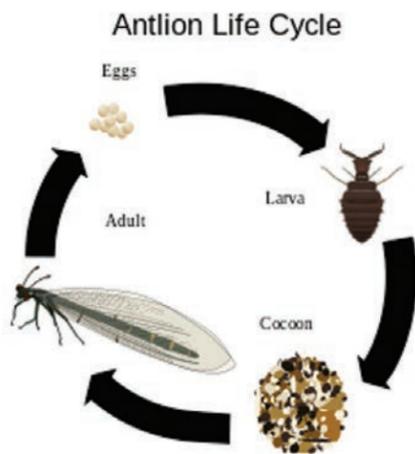

1. Antlion
2. The Concave Sandborer
3. Ground Wasp
4. Palmetto Beetle
5. Feral Sand Nymphs

The antlions (Distoleon tetragrammicus) are a group of about 2,000 species of insect in the family Myrmeleontidae that are known for the fiercely predatory habits of their larvae. Many species dig pits to trap passing ants or other prey. The adult insects are less well known and mostly fly at dusk or after dark. They may be mistakenly identified as dragonflies or damselflies and are sometimes known as antlion lacewings. In North America, the larvae are sometimes referred to as doodlebugs because of the strange marks they leave in the sand.

Antlions have a worldwide distribution with the greatest diversity occurring in the tropics. They most commonly occur in dry and sandy habitats where the larvae can easily excavate their pits, although some larvae hide under debris or ambush their prey among leaf litter.

In trap-building species, an average-sized larva digs a pit about 2 inches deep and 3 inches wide at the edge by starting with a circular groove and crawling backwards, using its abdomen as a plough to shovel up the soil. The steep-sloped trap, based on a critical angle of repose, guides prey into the larva's mouth while avoiding crater avalanches. It is one of the simplest and most efficient traps in the animal kingdom.

Antlions are poorly represented in the fossil record. The antlions' closest living relatives are thought to be the owlflies (Ascalaphidae). The predatory actions of the larvae have attracted attention throughout history, and antlions have been mentioned in literature since classical times. The term appears to go back to classical antiquity as the scientific name of the type genus Myrmeleo is derived from Ancient Greek λέων (léōn) "lion" + μύρμηξ (múrμηξ) "ant."

In the 2nd century AD Physiologus, the Myrmecoleon was a mythical ant-lion hybrid used when animal descriptions were paired with Christian morals. Although the exact meaning of the name "antlion" is uncertain, it probably indicates that ants form a large percentage of the prey of the insect. Popular folklore in the southern United States include a poem or chant to make the antlion come out of its hole and similar cultural practices have been recorded other places throughout the world.

 Where can you find these antlions?

Poe's Story

Poe is a 9 year old domestic cat that was brought into Sunshine Animal Hospital with severe intestinal problems. Poe was losing weight, had very little appetite and his overall quality of life was not very good. The cost of doing the necessary diagnostics including exploratory surgery and biopsies was beyond the means of Poe's owner. With the help of the "Animal Fund" Sunshine Animal Hospital was able to perform the necessary tests and procedures for Poe.

Today Poe is doing fine, she is still on medication for her condition and is expected to live a long and healthy life. "The Team at Sunshine Animal Hospital was wonderful and helped save my cat for which I am very grateful". M.M Tampa

The Veterinary Care Charitable Fund is a program of the American Veterinary Medical Foundation, the charitable arm of the American Veterinary Medical Association

The Power of Truth

In the Book of Psalms, King David wrote about what God desires, "Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts..." (Ps. 51:6). In other words, David was saying that God's desire for him and for us is that we would be truthful.

David knew what he was talking about because he had just experienced the greatest failure of his life. You see, David was walking around the housetop terrace of his palace when he looked through the window of his neighbor's house to see a beautiful woman named Bathsheba bathing. David desired her and sent a messenger to bring her to the palace. The result of this adulterous affair was revealed to David by a note Bathsheba sent to the king. She was pregnant and her husband had been with the armies of Israel for months.

King David then put into motion a plan to cover up the affair. He sent word to Joab, the commander of his army, for Uriah, Bathsheba's husband, to return home immediately. Upon his arrival, David honored Uriah and commended him for his service and sent him home to be with his wife. Instead, Uriah slept in the barracks near the palace. When David's servants told him that Uriah had not gone home, the king summoned him and asked why he had not gone to his home after such a long journey.

Uriah said to the king, that it would not be right for him to go home when his commander and fellow soldiers were camped in the open field and engaged in battle. When David was convinced that Uriah was not going to go home, he gave him a sealed message for Joab and sent him back to the battle. The message to Joab was to set Uriah in the hottest battle and withdraw from him so he would be killed. Joab obeyed the king, and the next day Bathsheba's husband was dead.

After a month of mourning for her husband, Bathsheba was taken to the palace and she became David's wife. David thought his sin was covered, but God sent a prophet to the king who told him a story about a poor man who had a pet lamb that was greatly loved by him and his children. The poor man's neighbor was very rich and had many flocks. One day a friend visited the rich man. When he prepared a meal for his visitor, he stole the pet lamb from the poor man instead of taking one from his own flock. When king David heard of this injustice, he pronounced a judgment against the rich man, saying, "the man who has done this deserves to die, and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity." (2 Sam. 12:5). The prophet then said to David, "You are the man."

David's lies to conceal his sin were discovered, resulting in the judgment he himself had determined. The prophet said, "The sword shall never depart from your house." (2 Sam. 12:10). Sadly, four of David's children died.

In the Book of Proverbs it says, "He that covers his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy." (Pr. 28:13) I wonder what might have been if David had gone to God with his sin instead of lying about it. Could he have avoided judgment and found forgiveness and mercy instead?

If we are walking in truth, then there is no place for things to hide in the dark. Give the devil "no place" (Eph. 4:27). Anything we attempt to hide will be the very thing that brings our ruin. Most people confess their wrongs if caught red-handed, but how sincere is their sorrow? If I am grieved for a wrong I've done even when no one knows about it and I go to God and ask forgiveness, I have exposed what was in the dark to the light of God's truth. Then when "I walk in the light as he is in the light...the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses me from all sin" (1 Jn. 1:7). Truth is transformational, and when we walk in the truth, we are aligning ourselves with God and in God is life and life more abundant (Jn. 10:10).

Who or What is Mammon?

David Cravatta,
Wells Fargo
Associate VP,
Investments

1) For days, I found it very difficult at just how I would present this or even why bother. At first I thought this would be easy, however, after pondering the subject, I reproached myself. Do I dare go here? Why attempt to talk about this when most people, churches and even preachers don't bring this up? I've been told, "Don't concentrate on that", "This does not need to be discussed", "People will think you're nuts" and better yet, "Who?" Okay, here goes: My question is, what is Mammon? Let me rephrase: Who is Mammon? Mammon is mentioned numerous times in both the Old and New Testament books and is most specifically mentioned in the book of Matthew when Jesus was preaching the Sermon on the Mount. In fact, Jesus directly addressed a question by answering "...you cannot serve two masters; one cannot serve God and Mammon." I never noticed this before, but my version of the Bible had Mammon as a pronoun. "Mammon is a person?" I asked myself. "Who is this Mammon?" I started asking questions about this...I mean, Jesus just doesn't throw words around, right? To my great frustration, the Bible often underscores the emphasis of an unseen enemy as I am a firm believer in knowing.

2) Did some digging and inquired of those who I worship with and inquired of two preachers who I know. To my astonishment, they did not know of this Mammon and did not know what it meant as a noun; now I'm really curious. Here is what I found: the noun "mammon" is associated with avarice and greed for wealth. However, the pronoun "Mammon" is one of the infernal names that was created by God and placed under God's third ranking Order of Angels via Thrones (majestic and beautiful charioteers with wings that sparkled like brass).

3) When Lucifer was cast out of Heaven, Mammon soon followed. In fact, prior to Mammon's banishment from God's splendor, he was already focused on himself, admiring Heaven's gold and emeralds and wanting and coveting them for his own in direct contrast to the spirit of God.

4) Mammon is easily disguised, extremely pervasive, and difficult to detect as he attaches himself to money and wealth, provides advice on how to build it, and whispers gently not to share with anyone. He attempts to convince us that wealth is more important than anything God can provide, constantly instructs to leave God's word behind, promises great wealth and fortune if we listen to him, and tells us sharing treasures is for ingrates... the exact opposite of God's love. Mammon's greatest power is his enticing influence he can exert and plant in hearts and minds inspiring envy and greed so potent that even the most innocent and loving person will corrupt themselves to obsession only to have their soul laid waste to his empty promises of fortune.

5) It is very easy and tempting to listen to Mammon's promises; I do admit I have in the past. But our heavenly Father & Almighty God has made his word perfectly clear: Mammon is one of the seven infernal princes of Hell who was cast down from Heaven like lightning. His fall was so heavy he is permanently stooped over and cannot stand straight, spending eternity staring at the ground. His supreme wickedness puts him on the same level of Satan himself and embodies the second of the seven deadly sins. As a financial advisor by profession for 36 years, I have seen him destroy people, families, and businesses. Mammon is relentless and will stop at nothing every hour of every day.

6) In our modern world of image, money turning over quickly and everything measured by gain, Mammon is everywhere like a monster devouring its prey with his true identity found by those who flaunt their wealth and abundance.

7) In the book of Ephesians, Paul addressed the subject of spiritual warfare: "...put God's armor on to resist the evil one's tactics. For it is not against human enemies that we struggle but against the Sovereignities and Powers who originate the darkness..." (Eph 6: 10-14). Sounds like Paul knew exactly who Mammon was, too.

What Our Longest Advertiser Says

When my personal training career started in this area over 17 years ago, Mark Dunn called me and asked if I wanted to be a part of their paper. I was new in business in this area and knew I had to get my name out there, so this was the first media outlet I had ever advertised in. As people started to hear about what I offered, through THIS paper, my name started to get out in the community, and in a few years I became the #1 producing personal trainer in the large gym I was in, out of 2,000 trainers!

When it was time to go out on my own, God used THIS paper to give me the confidence that I could find clients outside of that gym. I knew I must, because I wanted to create an environment for women that didn't want to be in a gym. That wanted a safe place they could work out and not feel judged. I also enjoy catering to Christian women who liked that our studio cared about that.

Now we have trained over 6,000 people, have 17 trainers, won the Small Business of the Year Award by the Chamber, give free seminars to the community, and started a meal prep service delivered to your home. We opened our 5th location in Palm Harbor, and we just moved our Wesley Chapel location into a new building that we own. We also have Land O Lakes, Carrollwood, Westchase, and more to come!

I thank God for bringing this paper into my life, and I am SO grateful, for they helped give me the original confidence that I could build this business, and look what it's turned into and the amount of people we serve! The owners, Mark and Kay, are some of the nicest, most genuine people you'll ever meet and I appreciate how they honor Jesus Christ in this paper. It's such a blessing to partner with them, and I'm happy to know that I am the longest advertiser in the last 17 years!

I wanted to thank you for the Heritage Harbor Golf Round for (2) two. We enjoyed playing Heritage Harbor this past Sunday afternoon. The course and the greens were in good shape. Once again, thank you very much. - Jerry L.

Get your Smile on! Think about this:

* Many folks want to serve God, but only as an adviser.

* Do you think “stop, drop, and roll” will work in Hell?

* Some minds are like concrete: thoroughly mixed up and have permanently set.

* God loves everyone but probably prefers “fruits of the Spirit” over nuts!

* The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes came close.

* Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on the front door forever.

* Quit griping about your church! If it was perfect, you couldn't belong.

* If your church needs a better pastor, it only needs to pray for the one it has.

Grammy Award Winning Recording Artist David Phelps at First Baptist Church

Once a childhood musical prodigy from Tomball, TX, David Phelps earned a bachelor's degree in music from Baylor University. Since then, he has become a nationally celebrated vocalist, whose gifts and talents are matched by none. Perhaps best known as the powerful tenor for the multiple Grammy and Dove Award-winning Gaither Vocal Band, Phelps is constantly building on a career that has already been groundbreaking.

Emerging as a leading voice in contemporary Christian music, Phelps has been winning the hearts of audiences all over the world for more than two decades. He has performed at numerous prestigious venues across the globe, including the White House, New York's Carnegie Hall and the Sydney Opera House in Australia.

With 14 solo albums to his credit, David's electrifying voice has moved audiences from all walks of life, crossing generational and stylistic barriers.

This event, presented by Carpenter's Son Productions, featuring David Phelps, as well as Phelps' musical entourage, including daughters, Callie and Maggie Beth, and will feature many of the songs from Phelps' Hymnal recording.

Phelps lends his three-octave range to some of the most treasured hymns of the church with this new recording, which showcases masterful vocals and lush arrangements of such cherished gems as “Amazing Grace,” “How Great Thou Art,” “In The Garden,” “Victory In Jesus” and “It Is Well With My Soul.”

Each song takes the listener on a journey of inspiration and worship in song. Any music lover, regardless of stylistic preference, will not want to miss this special evening of worship and celebration featuring David Phelps and the Phelps Family Band at the First Baptist Church in St Petersburg, FL, on Friday, October 11. Florida Flood & Mold Rescue

By Karen McBride

Florida Flood & Mold Rescue can help you during your time of crisis. Whether your house is flooded due to a broken water pipe or leaky toilet, call the experts to dry out your home before mold begins to grow and causes further damage. In the Florida heat, mold can begin to grow in as little as 48-72 hours if the dampness is left untreated.

Josh Greene, owner of Florida Flood & Mold Rescue, has been in the industry for 12 years. Last year he stepped out on his own, and he started his own company. As a Christian, his reputation for being honest while providing quality work is important to him, and this is the foundation for his company.

"It's not about the money. I feel this is my mission field," said Josh. "It's an opportunity for me to spread the love of Jesus and share God's word, while helping people to fix their homes after a flood."

When a flood occurs in your home, the team of professionals will remove the standing water and any damaged drywall, baseboards, and flooring. The drying process can take 3-10 days. Often times, homeowners will need to move out during this process as the home will be uninhabitable.

Josh takes it a step further and helps homeowners with the insurance process and can even recommend flooring and drywall companies to repair the home once it has been confirmed there is no mold.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 813-926-MOLD (6653) or visit <http://www.floodmoldrescue.com>.

Bella Tires Wheels & Service

Bella Tires desires to help anyone keep their vehicle in great working order, starting with the most important safety feature of all, the tires. They also carry a large assortment of affordable wheels and can order wheels of your choosing. They are aware that car maintenance and repair can be a bit overwhelming and want to put that apprehension to rest and replace it with peace of mind by offering complete auto and truck service.

In an effort to empower ladies in the community, Bella Tires is offering Saturday educational workshops from 9:00-11:00am that will introduce a variety of vehicle maintenance-based classes. On Thursday evenings they will also offer Bible Classes from 7:00-8:00pm that will at least give one a thoughtful perspective and at the most change your life.

Rich Nicoloff, owner of Bella Tires, recently retired from the Federal Government and pondered the ways he would spend his time while continuing to support a family.

"I have never been one to 'sit still' and have always enjoyed working on vehicles. That is: vehicles of any kind," said Nicoloff. "I observed a friend's tire business in West Virginia and was led to open a tire business in Land O Lakes to serve the people in my community."

Bella Tires desires to answer some very deep, life changing questions that were answered for Rich around seven years ago. They have a personal desire to share the Love of Jesus Christ with whoever chooses to visit Bella Tires. From cleaning love bugs from your car to tire and wheel repair, Bella Tires will offer different classes every Saturday along with coffee and treats in their café style showroom.

Bella Tires is located at 19245 SR 52, Land O Lakes, Florida, 34637. For more information, call (813) 995-0777. Business hours are: Monday-Friday from 8:00am-6:00pm, Saturday from 8:00am-1:00pm, and are closed on Sundays.

OUR MISSION

Is to effectively connect consumers with Christian product and service providers who strive to operate their business organization according to Biblical principles.

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, your heart will be also.” — Matthew 6:19-21
