THE BEATITUDES

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT
A study of Matthew 5-7

The well-known Bible story of the Sermon on the Mount is recorded in the Bible book of Matthew 5-7. The Sermon on the Mount comes from when Jesus was just beginning his early ministry after being baptized by John and was traveling through Galilee. On a mountainside, not far from Capernaum, Jesus stopped to give his longest and most popular sermon, giving this event the name "Sermon on the Mount." Jesus' teachings in this message include what's known as the Lord's Prayer as well as the Beatitudes. The focus of the Sermon on the Mount was how to live a life pleasing to God and the characteristics of Christian discipleship.

This sermon was a revelation through Jesus to His people. It served as a radical wake-up call for Christians to live wholeheartedly for God through faith, not simply through external actions of keeping the law. Our Savior used this passage to teach us how to live with the Kingdom of God in mind. The Sermon on the Mount is not simply a list of rules to follow, it is an invitation to live under grace and experience blessings and rewards from living Christ-like. Read the entire Bible Scripture passage for the Sermon on the Mount as seen in the continuation.

Isn't it interesting how we tend to give titles to different times of the year according to common hardships people experience collectively such as cold and flu season at the beginning of winter. Springtime is often referred to as allergy season, and then there is flea and tick season, tax season, and even some less enlightened football widows would include football season in the list of dreadful times. We tend to have seasons for everything under the sun. Tourist season is great for business but clogs the roadways, making the locals' long commutes even longer. Then there is hurricane season, and the lists go on and on.

Wouldn't it be great if we considered seasons that are named by more pleasant experiences? How about a joyous season or season of health and wealth followed by seasons of forgiveness and peace? Seasons of giving, sharing, comforting, and helping could replace seasons of hardship, trouble, and tragedy. What if these were not just seasonally activities, but continuous experiences?

Just like the onset of sniffles or fever causes people to take preventative actions with flu shots or mega doses of vitamin C, so we should take preventative actions at the first symptoms of fear, criticism, suspicion, or offense.

Writing to the Church at Ephesus, the apostle Paul says that our struggle is not with flesh and blood (people), but with principalities, powers, the rulers of darkness of this world and spiritual wickedness in heavenly places (Eph. 6:12).

In other words, Paul is saying that much of our struggle and conflict is to be attributed to unseen evil forces that operate in the realm of deception. Remember when you stood in line in the fourth grade and reached around the boy in front of you to pull the hair of the girl in front of him so he got the blame when she turned around to complain? Many times, we are blaming the wrong person for pulling our hair.

People are hurt and broken, wounded by words spoken, afraid of what season is around the corner. What if we consider the real enemy of our faith and quit blaming others for the opposing winds and waves? We should recognize the symptoms as soon as the irritations begin and refrain from complaining about the season or accepting its unavoidability.

Instead, address the real culprit behind the scenes not allowing blame, accusation, suspicion or "feelings" of defeat and depression to overwhelm us and steal our joy and peace. Jesus said, "be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (Jn. 16:33).

The world is not the planet, but the systems of how things work that are outside of the will of God. The "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4) refers to Satan and his work of deception and lying, symptoms that bring storms of doubt and fear that cause some to live in seasons of perpetual chaos. Jesus overcame the world, not for himself, but for us. Who is a world "overcomer" but he that believes that Jesus is the Son of God" (1 Jn. 5:5)?

May we be quick to recognize the early symptoms of trouble and give no place to the enemy knocking on the door. Jesus overcame the world for us so we can live above the circumstances and enjoy every season of life.

Dr. Robert Norman, Board-Certified Dermatologist/Writer/Nature-Lover

Board-certified dermatologist Dr. Robert Norman has practiced medicine for over 35 years. As chief physician and owner of Dermatology Healthcare, he provides services for nursing home patients. His care and compassion for his patients led him to open the Norman Center for Neurodermatology, which investigates the interactions between the brain and the skin in relation to disorders such as Alzheimer's disease, Neurodermatitis, and others.

Dr. Norman enjoys giving back to the community and is a frequent medical volunteer for medical mission trips and at the Judeo Christian Health clinic of Tampa. Dr. Norman established the Norman Jewish Library and Learning Center near USF in 2012, which oversees a literacy and book donation program, in the hope that others will share his love for reading and education. His quest for knowledge and his natural gift of writing steered him to write 46 books on dermatology, medical care, and a variety of other subjects. His most recent book, Israel: The Start-Up Nation for Medical Innovation, discusses the advancements Israel has made in medical technology.

"Artificial intelligence, nanotechnology, medicine, and pharmacology are just some of the many disciplines where Israeli scientists are actively taking key roles in creating and developing new technologies," said Dr. Norman.

Other books include Clinical Cases in Skin Cancer Surgery and Treatment, Clinical Cases in Integrative Dermatology, and Vital Signs, which is very popular with medical students throughout the world. For a complete listing of his books, go to www.skindrrob.com.

In his limited free time, Dr. Norman and his family enjoy Florida's beautiful nature parks. His favorite parks include Hillsborough River State Park, the Ocala National Forest, and Myakka River State Park. His never-ending enthusiasm for learning about nature began at an early age.

"All my life I liked exploring and turning over logs and seeing what I could find," said Dr. Norman. He has shared his experiences in the articles he has written for Dunndead Gazette newspapers. Be sure to check the next edition of the Gazette newspaper for more from Dr. Norman.

How On Earth Did I Get Here?

James H. Willis, III

For 2020, we are doing a 12-month summary of my book. It is filled with unbelievable personal stories of conflict from family fights, divorces, and personal insecurities to living in a tree at 15, homeless. Later, the book recounts how the Lord's guidance put me on the path of an overcomer! From being unloved, unwanted, and uncared for to healthy, happy, and whole.

CHAPTER 2: WHY LIVE IN A TREE?

I have to tell you something important. My hero was Tarzan, king of the jungle. My friends and I were the "adventurers of the wild." We built forts and tree houses and made swings from the vines in the trees. We had encounters with every local animal in Florida. And yes, that includes alligators.

To understand my story and the title of this book, it is important to understand where I started from. Family-wise, my life was a mess, nothing but conflicts and fighting, from verbal abuse to physical beatings from my parents and an older sister who hated me. Academically, I didn't do very well. At the age of ten, fifth grade, I was "held back." It was devastating to my self-image. At age 13, my parents got a divorce. The violence escalated, and we lost everything overnight.

It was when I was fifteen that two things happened that forever changed my life. First, I grew 7" and my older sister couldn't beat me up anymore. Second, that fateful "second glance" – and now we are back to the opening of my story when I was kicked out of the house, heading somewhere, anywhere, nowhere, and I ended up at "the tree." For six months I lived in that tree - so alone. I didn't tell anybody – I was too embarrassed. Was I worthless, no good, a nobody? But inside me, I wanted to be a somebody. It was up to me to get out of that tree!

MY LIFE NEEDED TO TAKE FOUR LARGER THAN LIFE STEPS

First, I had to get honest with myself. I was discouraged. That was an understatement! Second, I needed to be determined and get rid of all my excuses. Third, I needed to be disciplined. I had to figure out how to change my values. Fourth, I needed to be a dreamer. I had to stop all the negative stuff and choose to be positive. These articles contain an abbreviated version of my stories. The stories will continue next month!!!

Warning...Don't read this book....
...if you want your life to stay the same!

Kidz Corner: Valentine's Day

Happy Valentine's Day! My name is Harley, and today were going to talk a little about the origin of Valentine's Day.

Saint Valentine was a priest who performed the ceremonies for young soldiers' weddings. He performed these ceremonies in secret. The king had him thrown in prison because he wanted his soldiers to stay in the army. The reason he wanted single men in his army was because that married men only cared about their wives and children, and being so focused on their wives and children would get them to not think that much about the war. Valentine fell in love with the jailer's daughter and sent her a card and signed it, your Valentine.

Valentine's Day today as seen as a celebration of romance, often with giving cards and candy and just loving each other. Kinds of events can include daddy-daughter dates and parties. But even with all these gifts there is a Valentine that is the greatest: Jesus. Jesus is the greatest because he died on the cross for us. Even you people who don't have any family or friends remember Jesus is your Valentine and He always loves you.

Ways to spend time with Jesus include reading your Bible, going to church, and praying. But the ultimate thing is accepting Jesus in your life. We are supposed to confess our sins and believe that Jesus is God's Son and that he died and rose again for you and me.

Harley Isabel Smith is a 1st grader who has been featured on TV as a philanthropist, has a heart for evangelism, and writes monthly for the Gazette's Kid's Corner.

"This is how we know what love is; Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. If anyone has any material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him? Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth." — 1 John 3:16-18

SHARING YOUR HEART

A bouquet of flowers from your special someone, children giving Valentine's Day cards to their friends, dinner with just you and your spouse... there is nothing like sharing your heart with those that you love.

Natalia age: 7

Valentine's Day is an exciting time here at Hope as well. When the children get home from school, the house-parents have little treat bags for each child, or flowers for each of the girls. One cottage enjoys baking desserts and watching a movie together. We do all these things not only because it is fun, but because we want them to know what it means to open up their hearts to receive and to give love.

Every day we strive to share our hearts with these children so that one day they will want to receive the love of Christ.

Did you know that you can join us in showing love to our children this Valentine's Day? One of the items we greatly need for our children are gift cards. While traveling, we use gift cards to buy meals for the children or to purchase new shoes or clothes for them. These gift cards can be dropped off Tues.-Sat. from 9am-4pm or mailed to our address at 11415 Hope Intl. Dr., Tampa, FL 33625. Any donation made would be greatly appreciated! Please join us in showing Christ's love to our children. "No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted." —Aesop.

Let’s Talk Skin

Did you know that when we are young, our skin cells slough off or turnover every 14 to 21 days? Let me explain what those terms mean:

Our skin is made up of layers. The inner layer is the dermis, which lies on top of the subcutaneous layer or your fat. The dermis layer is the layer that receives the blood, oxygen, and nutrients. It is also where the hair follicles, sweat glands, and oil glands are. The next layer, the epidermis, lies on top of the dermis.

Depending on the location, the epidermis can be made up of 5 layers. The 5 layers of the epidermis are the following:

1. Stratum Basal or Germinativum (think of a seed germinating)
2. Stratum Spinosum or Spiny (these cells are spiny in appearance)
3. Stratum Granulosum or Granular
4. Stratum Lucidum (only on palms of your hands and soles of your feet)
5. Stratum Corneum or Horny layer (the outer most superficial layer we see and it can be 15-20 layers of dead cells)

It is in the stratum basal or geminativum layer where your cells are dividing, making new cells every day. As more and more new cells are created, the older cells are pushed up toward the stratum corneum layer where they eventually are slough off. It is this journey that takes the older cells to reach the stratum corneum, where the term “cell turnover” is coined. The cells at the stratum corneum layer are flatten, dead cells, filled with keratin. As previously stated, when we are younger the “cell turnover” is about 14-21 days. As we get older the “cell turnover” coincides with our age; so, if you are 40 years old, cell turnover is 40 days, 50 years old, cell turnover is 50 days, 60 years old, cell turnover is 60 days and so on. This is why our skin loses its glow, and resilience. Dead skin cells build up on the surface of the skin, and the skin becomes thinner due to collagen bundles being loose instead of tightly packed as it is when we were younger.

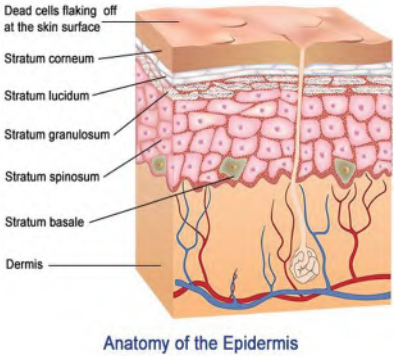

The sloughing off of the accumulated dead cells from the surface of your skin (removing the cell congestion) leads to a healthier glow. In addition, by removing the cell congestion, the skin is more readily able to absorb serums and other skin products producing optimum results. This is why chemical peels became popular; they force “cell turnover.” There are aggressive medical grade peels and there are lower grade peels.

The medical grade chemical peels can be very invasive, with downtime (several days to weeks) and usually with prescribed antibiotics. The skin is the first line of defense from the environment and when extreme layers are removed infections can occur.

The lower grade chemical peels can be so mild there is no downtime or redness and can be performed every 14 to 21 days mimicking the cell turnover as when we were younger. They can also be a bit aggressive with shorter “downtime” usually 3 days to 1 week, accompanied with some redness, visual flaking or peeling of the skin similar to a snake shedding. In the long run, the benefits outweigh the unpleasantness. Chemical peels minimize pores, reduce the appearance of wrinkles, stimulate collagen production, reduce sun damage discoloration/hyperpigmentation, helps clear up acne, some scarring, and evens out skin tones and texture. If you do not want the long downtime as with the medical grade peels, then scheduling the lower grade peels more frequently may be the best option.

The recommendation of which peel to do should be determined by a Florida licensed dermatologist, plastic surgeon, or Florida licensed facial or full specialist after they have professionally evaluated your skin. Please note that the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) does not license medical estheticians. We are either licensed full specialist or facial specialist but not licensed medical estheticians. Please contact me for more information or to book a free consultation, and “Let’s Talk Skin.”

The Beatitudes

Beatitudes in 2020

In Matthew 5:1-20, Jesus began to teach his disciples, saying:

- Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
- Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
- Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
- Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
- Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
- Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.
- Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you Because of me.

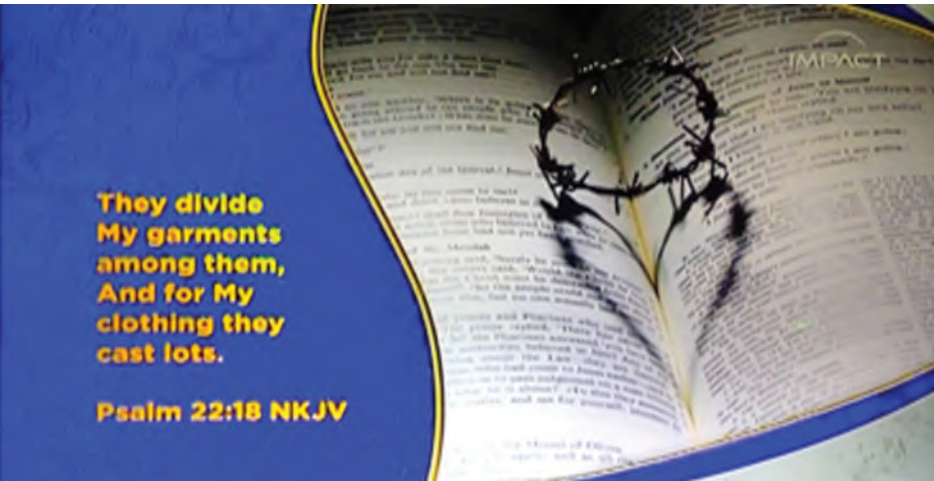

Rejoice and be glad because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled by men.

You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves. Love never fails.”

Preventative Medicine is the Key to Maintaining Good Health

By Karen McBride

Preventative medicine is the first step in maintaining your good health. Eating healthy meals with fresh fruits and vegetables is essential. Daily exercise and fresh air are equally important. Washing your hands frequently and using sanitary wipes on shopping carts can help reduce the spread of germs. And never underestimate the power of a good night's sleep! What else can you do? Consult with your doctor about getting the proper vaccinations for illnesses such as the flu and whooping cough.

Is it too late to get a flu shot?

The Center for Disease Control ("CDC") recommends that "everyone 6 months of age and older should get a flu vaccine every season with rare exception." Generally, it is better get the flu vaccine in September or October before the season begins. However, it can be beneficial throughout the entire flu season as a means to better protect yourself from the illness.

There are different vaccines to choose from. The vaccine can be administered through a shot (ages 6 months and up) or in a nasal spray (for ages 2 to 49 years old). The CDC does not recommend one over the other. It is best to consult a doctor.

Whooping cough, or Pertussis, can be a serious disease. Pertussis can cause uncontrollable, violent coughing, which make it hard to breathe. There are two types of vaccines to fight against this disease. DTaP is for children younger than 7 years old, while older children, teens and adults get Tdap. Consult a physician to determine the need for this and other vaccinations.

Dr. Michele Johnson-Towson, at Pediatric Place of Tampa, is a board-certified pediatrician with 30 years of experience in caring for children ages newborn to 21 years old.

Dr. Johnson-Towson and her staff are dedicated to keeping patients both healthy and educated on changes in children's health care. Pediatric Place of Tampa offers Urgent Care hours to accommodate sick children after work, school, and/or daycare. Urgent Care hours are available Monday – Friday until 7pm and Saturday 8:00am until noon. Pediatric Place of Tampa is located at 1338 W. Fletcher Avenue, Tampa, FL 33612. The Importance of Microchip Identification

Did you know??? Getting lost is the number one cause of death for family pets. One in three pets will go missing in its lifetime and without identification 90% of lost pets never return home.

Fortunately, these sad statistics can be changed. Microchip identification is a relatively painless procedure that does not require surgery. It is a simple, one-time insertion of a small chip under the skin between the shoulders of cats and dogs. Once a microchip is implanted it is permanent. The microchip number is then registered in a database and owner's contact information is associated with the pet's microchip number. Should a lost pet be recovered by a rescue group, veterinary hospital or animal shelter, the pet will be scanned, and the chip number can be matched to the database. Then, the owner can be notified that their pet has been found!

The HomeAgain® Pet Recovery Program which we use at Sunshine Animal Hospital helps recover 10,000 lost pets each month!

A HomeAgain® Microchip can be the most important gift you give your pet. It will give you peace of mind to know what you have given your pet is its best chance to return home safely.

A Journey to Love One's Self

The Salvation Army Tampa Adult Rehabilitation Center (ARC) helps repair broken lives.

Jaimie shares the story of her transformation:

"Hopeless and stuck in an abusive relationship, I was involved in prostitution and homelessness. I lost all desire to live while using heroin, meth, and alcohol every day. I committed robbery and was sent to prison. Incarcerated, Jesus Christ found me. When released, God led me to the ARC. There my faith blossomed. I was shown so much love until I could learn how to love myself."

Estate Planning

The recent passing of basketball great Kobe Bryant is a jarring reminder of just how fragile life really is. Most of us take for granted that we have a long string of tomorrows ahead of us, but such thinking is arrogance. Consider the words of James:

Look here, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit." How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it's here a little while, then it's gone. (James 4:13-14, NLT)

The harsh reality is that none of us know which day will be our last, so wisdom dictates that we should prepare for our passing in advance. When Hezekiah, the King of Judah, became gravely ill, the Lord sent the prophet Isaiah to him with a message, saying "Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die." Unfortunately, most of us are not given such a clear warning.

Maybe that's why so many people put off creating an estate plan. In a 2019 study by Caring.com, only 40% of adults have a will, living trust, or other testamentary documents. Predictably, the study found that the percentages increased directly with the age of the respondent. What's surprising, however, is that only 66% of people age 65 and older have a will or a trust – and, in some cases, the consequences of failing to plan can be devastating. Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die.

If you'd like to learn more about creating a will or trust tailored to your family, your property, and your individual circumstances, contact McDannold Law today.

In this day and age we hear a lot of discussion of "alternative" lifestyles and in particular the LGBTQ community and homosexuality. Indeed, over the past twenty or thirty years, gay relationships have become acceptable and even considered normal mostly by the millennial generation. As a baby boomer, I will admit I have a very difficult time with this because I don't understand that type of love or same-sex attraction. I've had friends and clients who have admitted they are gay and attempt to explain it but it just doesn't sink in. Frankly, it does not matter what I think, what I believe or discuss privately because it is not about me. What matters is what does God have to say about this?

While some say that God is accepting of any relationship, the Bible paints a very different picture. Just because the world has become more accepting of these relationships and lifestyles, whether it be through the courts or otherwise, does not make it justified in His eyes. In fact, God clearly labels this lifestyle as unacceptable. But to openly mention that homosexuality is wrong is quite unpopular in today's culture. After all, who am I to point that out? My mother, God rest her soul, always said not to throw rocks in glass houses and that is not my intention here.

Many in the gay community have argued insistently the heart of this claim is nothing more than poor biblical scholarship, a cultural bias of same-gender relationships and "selective" behavior. Further, many take the position that the LGBTQ community are a part of God's wondrous creation, created to be just who they are and completely loved and treasured by God. Not to sound disingenuous, but where is this written? Can someone please provide a reference in either Testament books? What I have read and will reference is Paul's letter to the Romans and his reiteration of God's command on abstaining from this behavior (Rom: 1:26-27) as well as his other letters to the early church.

Over the years, churches have revised their view of this issue to their congregations and many have changed their bylaws reflecting their acceptance of "marriage equality". The latest announcement from the United Methodist Church and its acceptance of marriage equality, which represents the second-largest Protestant denomination (13 million members) has essentially caused the church to split in two. Question is, which denomination is truthful and which is bending God's rules? Bottom line here is, I do not condemn this behavior, God does. God's word has not changed, man has changed His word. God's word and commandments are man's edification. Obeying the perfect, unchanging commandments of God written thousands of years ago creates life and more life abundantly. Christ said over and over that disobeying His truth results in death.

Society continues to insist an alternative lifestyle is perfectly fine and in fact wholesome. The Bible claims otherwise: "...if a man also lie with another man as he lieth with a woman, both have committed an abomination which they shall surely be put to death; their blood will be upon them."(Lev 20: 13). Don't shoot me, for I'm only the messenger.

A Passion for Food and Flavor
By Michelle Cloutier

When Massimo Sabetti and his wife Dana Galietta moved to Lutz, they wanted to open a restaurant where everyone could feel at home. Nabruzzi Trattoria is the fulfillment of their dream. Having worked in the bakery and restaurant business since he was 13, hospitality runs through Massimo's veins – so much so that he's passed it on to his son Anthony, now the talented Executive Chef at Nabruzzi.

Massimo's love of serving guests shows up in the atmosphere at Nabruzzi. No loud music or high metallic ceilings here. Comfortable and cozy surroundings invite you to sit and stay awhile. The service is impeccable, and, while dining is leisurely, you are never kept waiting for your next course or drink refill.

If you and your Valentine want to experience dining in Abruzzo, Italy, Massimo's hometown, then dive into the always-fresh cuisine here. My friend and I had the pleasure of dining here recently. We started with Bruschetta, toasted Ciabatta bread topped with plum tomatoes and mozzarella di bufala. The mozzarella also graced the generous Caprese, which featured heirloom tomatoes and cut basil. The Calamari Fritti was delicate and definitely not chewy – the way Calamari is supposed to be! Massimo should bottle his Caesar salad dressing, a bright, lemony delight with just a hint of anchovy.

I indulged in the Ossobucco Maiale Caterina – pork shank braised to crispy deliciousness on the outside, fall-off-the-bone tender on the inside. A side order of the mushroom and asparagus Risotto was such comfort food that I could have curled up in it and fallen asleep. My dining companion had the daily Pesce special – perfectly-cooked salmon served with fingerling potatoes and green beans.

Although delightfully full, we had to try dessert. My friend had the house made Tiramisu, full of fresh Marscapone cheese. I chose the Spumoni Bomba, a large scoop of Spumoni ice cream surrounded by a crispy dark chocolate shell. Sadly, I had to leave half of it behind because I simply could not eat more. Bring your Valentine to Nabruzzi, knowing that you will be treated like family and leave satisfied and satiated.

Just Palms

Chris Tillman

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

JESUS is not our Religion, he is our Savior...

Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. Hebrews 11:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. "The Big Bang" Genesis 1:3 "Let there be light..."

Thanks to the advertisers, our Operating Partners, we can make a difference in the community. Their support of the Gazettes has brought us to the crossroads in Bible ministries that our forefathers forged into our Constitution, IN GOD WE TRUST. As a Christian publication, we are on a mission to exceed expectations with outstanding hard work by connecting with Christian businesses, and churches. Our uplifting editorials are mainly contributions from local businesses, churches, and events... 1st Corinthians 16:14 Let all that you do be done in love.

NOW is the time to support this Christian paper!

What Our Longest Advertiser Says

When my personal training career started in this area over 17 years ago, Mark Dunn called me and asked if I wanted to be a part of their paper. I was new in business in this area and knew I had to get my name out there, so this was the first media outlet I had ever advertised in. As people started to hear about what I offered, through THIS paper, my name started to get out in the community, and in a few years I became the #1 producing personal trainer in the large gym I was in, out of 2,000 trainers!

When it was time to go out on my own, God used THIS paper to give me the confidence that I could find clients outside of that gym. I knew I must, because I wanted to create an environment for women that didn't want to be in a gym. That wanted a safe place they could work out and not feel judged. I also enjoy catering to Christian women who liked that our studio cared about that.

Now we have trained over 6,000 people, have 17 trainers, won the Small Business of the Year Award by the Chamber, give free seminars to the community, and started a meal prep service delivered to your home. We opened our 5th location in Palm Harbor, and we just moved our Wesley Chapel location into a new building that we own. We also have Land O Lakes, Carrollwood, Westchase, and more to come!

I thank God for bringing this paper into my life, and I am SO grateful, for they helped give me the original confidence that I could build this business, and look what its turned into and the amount of people we serve! The owners, Mark and Kay, are some the nicest, most genuine people you'll ever meet and I appreciate how they honor Jesus Christ in this paper. It's such a blessing to partner with them, and I'm happy to know that I am the longest advertiser in the last 17 years!
