Hope: The Anchor of the Soul

The Certainty of God's Promise Hebrews 6:13-20

An anchor was a popular image in the ancient Mediterranean world. Because that economy depended on shipping, the anchor came to symbolize safety and steadiness. The writer of Hebrews used the word to remind believers that God has given a hope that holds firm in any storm.

Hope is a healthy attitude. Anticipating good brings comfort to the mind and heart. In contrast, a state of hopelessness is a terrible condition in which to find oneself. It's overwhelming and depressing to think that what you're facing cannot be changed or resolved. For the person who has lost all hope, life looks like a long, dark tunnel going nowhere.

"Hope deferred makes the heart sick." (Proverbs 13:12) Emotional, physical, and even mental illness haunt a person who feels trapped in a bleak situation. But as long as there is a God, no situation is hopeless. In Him, we have the promise of the second half of that proverb: "Desire fulfilled is a tree of life."

Believers have a hope that anchors their soul. Our relationship with Jesus Christ brings us close to the throne of heaven, where we can cast all of our burdens before an omnipotent God. Moreover, we can cling to Him through any trial that comes our way. Because of the Lord's great love, He provides strength for weary bodies, peace for anxious minds, and comfort for grieving hearts. In short, He lights that darkened tunnel and tenderly guides us through trying situations.

Prayer Susie Walther, The Well Bible Study Ministry

This is my working definition of prayer: physical words spoken into spiritual places that have a spiritual effect on physical realities. I believe prayer has two key sides to it—communion and combat. It's communion with God and each other, but it's also combat against the kingdom of darkness. God commands us to "pray without ceasing," which simply means we must be unrelenting. Why does God tell us to pray without ceasing? Because no one can stand up under endless bombing! When a city is under constant attack, you really only have a few options: you can stay and be destroyed, you can retreat, or you can surrender.

Dr. Douglas Wingate, Ph.D.
Life Christian University

This past January 13th, Jesus gave me a mini-vision that has proven to be prophetic for a number of people. In the vision, I simply saw a door that opened and beyond that door was another door. Each door opened successively until I saw about 10 doors and their openings. Right after that, the Lord spoke to me and said, “This will be a year of open doors for you.” At the time I didn’t know this word would be meant for others as well, but soon after, my wife, Susan, began telling me that a number of prophetic ministries she had been following were declaring the same word.

When a prophetic word comes that we believe is for us personally, it is vital that we realize the importance of our responsibility to that word. When God reveals something about His future will for us, He is doing so in the context of covenant. He is always thinking of our partnership. We must be faithful stewards of our part of the covenant, which, in this case, is to bathe the prophetic word in prayer so that we will recognize the doors when they open. Most of these prophecies are conditional words that will not come to complete fruition without our faithful participation.

I love the book of James. In James 2:17 and 20, James tells us, “Faith without works is dead.” We know that James is referring to the corresponding actions that result from hearing God. He is using the illustration of Abraham offering his son Isaac on the altar at God’s command in verse 21. I believe that it would be suitable to substitute the word “faithfulness”

Faith Without Faithfulness Is Dead

for the word “works” in this entire passage. In other words, faithfulness is the reasonable and appropriate response of a believer when they hear directions from such a loving Heavenly Father, or from such a compassionate Lord and Savior. So now we can easily say, “Faith without (faithfulness) is dead.”

I love the understanding that comes when we read verse 22 and substitute the word “faithfulness” for “works.” It says, “Do you see that faith was working together with his (faithfulness) and by (faithfulness) faith was made perfect.” Also verse 24, which says, “You see then that a man is justified by (faithfulness), and not by faith only.

The reason I believe we should revere the perspective of James is this: no other human on earth spent as much time with Jesus as this man. As Jesus’ half-brother, and the second son born to Mary, James would have lived and worked right next to his older brother, Jesus, for perhaps 25 years or more. Jesus knew from the age of 12 that He had to be about His “Father’s business.” I am sure that He developed His teaching ministry by constantly sharing His insights with His own family.

James probably heard more of the Word of God taught by the Messiah than any other man alive. And yet, he did not believe in his own brother’s ministry when Jesus launched out around the whole country. We don’t know why he didn’t follow his brother, or even if he had been asked to go, but if he didn’t believe in his brother’s cause, he very well may have felt that Jesus had abandoned the family carpentry business, leaving him, James, with the all the responsibilities.

When Jesus and His disciples were so busy ministering to the people that they couldn’t even eat, James and the family came to take Jesus away, thinking that He had gone insane. Mark 3:21 says, “But when His own people heard about this, they went out to lay hold of Him, for they said, ‘He is out of His mind.’”

We are familiar with the deep remorse that Peter had, having denied knowing the Lord right before the Crucifixion. Can you imagine how James must have felt after Jesus was raised from the dead? He had listened to his brother for 25 years and never believed in Him. When he came to the realization that his own brother really was the Son of God, who died for him, and is now his Savior and Lord, he must have also felt great remorse. I believe that he determined right then to be the most faithful of all the disciples. He began to use the great wealth of understanding, now flooding his mind by revelation, from all of those years of mentoring by Jesus.

James’ deep commitment and faithfulness to Jesus found him exceeding the influence of even the Apostles of the Lamb. He became the Pastor of the Church at Jerusalem, from which the Apostles themselves traveled out and came back to report.

I believe if we diligently pray about God’s open doors for our lives and ministries, and determine, like James, to faithfully do what the Lord is leading us to do this next year, that we will find greater fruitfulness for His kingdom than we have ever seen before.

Eating healthy doesn’t have to be boring, and it can be delicious!!! You have got to try this recipe for this Chocolate Peanut Butter Fudge! Everyone that has tried it loves it and can’t tell its healthy! Plus, see the link at the end of this page for many more amazing recipes.

Peanut butter fudge

A peanut butter and chocolate lover’s dream! If you don’t like peanut butter, you can just leave that part off. Sugar free, gluten free, and low carb, but full of flavor!

Ingredients

Brownie Base:

- 12 tbsp butter
- 4 oz unsweetened chocolate
- 1/4 cup cocoa powder
- 3/4 cup Swerve Sweetener or Truvia
- 1/2 tsp vanilla extract
- 5 large eggs (preferably cage free eggs)

Peanut Butter Fudge:

- 3/4 cup all natural peanut butter
- 6 tbsp butter
- 1/2 tsp vanilla
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 3/4 cup to 1 cup powered Swerve Sweetener, sifted (or you can use Truvia but you will need to put it in a magic bullet and just make it powder since it doesn’t come that way in the bag)

Chocolate Drizzle:

- 1 ounce high % cacao chocolate

Instructions

Healthy Peanut Butter Fudge!

Brownies:

1. Preheat oven to 325° F and line an 8x8 inch baking pan with parchment paper with overhanging edges for easier brownie removal.
2. Melt butter, chocolate, and cocoa powder together in a medium saucepan, stirring until smooth.
3. Stir in swerve or Truvia and vanilla extract. Let cool 5 minutes.
4. Whisk in eggs, one at a time, until well combined.
5. Spread mixture in prepared pan. Bake 15 minutes or until just barely set and middle is still not quite cooked. Watch them carefully as they can get quite dry if overdone. The edges will rise a little higher but should recede as they cool.
6. Let cool in pan 10 minutes.

Peanut Butter Fudge:

1. In a small saucepan over medium heat, melt together peanut butter and butter. Stir in vanilla and salt.
  2. Stir in powdered swerve or Truvia a little at a time until the mixture thickens to a spreadable consistency.
  3. Spread over cooled brownies and refrigerate 1 hour, until set.
- Chocolate Drizzle:*
1. In a small, microwavable-safe bowl, melt chocolate by heating in microwave in 30 second increments. Stir until smooth.
  2. Drizzle over peanut butter fudge. Let set at least 10 minutes.
  3. Lift brownies out by edges of parchment. Cut into 1-inch squares.

A New Easter Outfit for a Child

It seems as though the holidays are just behind us, and we are already looking forward to Easter. As you may know, Hope Children’s Home is 100% privately funded and relies totally upon God and the good people who so generously pray for and support the children. We celebrate the fact that Jesus Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again the third day, and it is this day that we come together to celebrate Easter Sunday. Our children attend church often, so they are always in need of new clothes, but with your help, we can make sure that each child will be able to attend Easter services with a new outfit. All the other children at church will have a new outfit, so it means so much to be able to see our children with their new outfits as well.

If you would like to provide a child with a new Easter outfit, please give by one of the ways to the right. Any way you can help will be a huge blessing for the children. They are always so excited to wear their new clothes on Easter Sunday. May the Lord bless you for your kindness. Happy Easter!

GIVE TOWARD EASTER OUTFITS:

Free Job Fair

There will be a free Job Fair on Tuesday April 18, 2017. It will be held at the Dale Mabry Campus of Hillsborough Community College from 9:30am – 2:00pm. It will be located in the gym and 50+ employers with hiring opportunities are scheduled to attend. This event is free and open to the public.

Each HCC campus houses a Career Resource Center (CRC) staffed by professionals to assist students in selecting a career and mapping an educational pathway.

The Centers offer tools and services to assess skills and interests, explore various occupations, develop résumés, and prepare for interviews. Job Fairs are held each spring and/or fall semester.

44th Annual Gift of Gold Gala

Hillel Academy of Tampa will honor three families that created a “Legacy of Light” by paving the way for Tampa Bay’s only Jewish day school to blossom into the success that it is today. Hillel was founded in 1970 at Congregation Rodeph Shalom in South Tampa. But it quickly outgrew its space and moved to a sprawling campus on Fletcher Ave. in North Tampa where it is now.

The gala, to be held March 18 at 8pm at the brand new Bryan Glazer family JCC in South Tampa, will honor Larry Solomon z”l, who directed the Fletcher Campus purchase; Jeff Wuliger z”l, who chaired the Fletcher Campus capital campaign, and Paul Roberg and Susan Levine, who created the Maurice Levine Library. “Those who founded Hillel Academy are with us in spirit every day as we continue their legacy of excellence in education with Jewish values,” said Gordon Rode, interim head of school at Hillel Academy.

The fundraising event will begin with a special and memorable Havdalah experience and will include an elegant dinner, large silent auction with mobile bidding, and music/dancing by DJ Staar Entertainment. Tickets for $75 per person are still available. Cocktail attire and kosher dietary laws will be observed.

Please visit <https://hillelacademytampa.ejoinme.org/> to purchase sponsorships, tickets, and program ads.

Dixie Melody Boys

The Dixie Melody Boys will be featured at the Lake Gibson Church of the Nazarene located at 6868 North Socrum Loop Road in Lakeland, FL. The Dixie Melody Boys will be featured on Sunday, March 19 at 6:00pm. Since their original formation decades ago, the Kinston, NC-based quartet known as The Dixie Melody Boys has enjoyed tremendous success, including a Grammy nomination and numerous Fan Award nominations from The Singing News Magazine, Southern Gospel music’s leading fan and trade publication. This talented quartet, led by 50-year veteran and recent Southern Gospel Music Hall of Fame inductee Ed O’Neal, has enjoyed over 20 Top 40 hits, including eight Top 10 releases and a Number One single. The quartet’s goal of delivering a first-class performance, filled with excitement, energy, and lots of great traditional, Southern Gospel music are traits which have proven to play an essential role in the success the group has enjoyed.

Hidden In Plain Sight

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Since December 2014, Dunndean Publications has donated space to educate our readership on the horror that is human trafficking. Victims of modern day slavery are often hidden in plain sight.

As a society we must all strive to recognize this evil in order to make a difference—someone’s life may well depend on our own educated awareness. The facts are grim:

- The United States of America is the #1 consumer of trafficked human beings
- Florida is third in the nation as a human trafficking destination
- The Tampa Bay area ranks between second and third place in the state
- 83% of the victims are American citizens, with an average age of 12
- A human trafficking victim has a typical life expectancy of only 7 years
- Sex, forced labor, and organ harvesting are components of trafficking.

Locating and rescuing a victim is the critical first step in restoring the mental and physical health of an exploited and enslaved individual. Victims need medical care and basic necessities—food, clothing, and shelter. Rehabilitation is a slow process requiring time and resources.

Many of these victims have been denied a chance to attend or finish school. Once rescued, a victim needs to develop the skills and education needed to become a survivor and to eventually thrive.

The Salvation Army will provide GED classes at no charge to ensure the rescued girls receive an education.

If you think you have come into contact with a victim of human trafficking, do not become involved personally, but do call one of the professional services trained to recognize and rescue victims.

Report your suspicions anonymously to local law enforcement, the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888, the U.S. Department of Justice Hotline at 1-888-428-7581, the Florida Abuse Hotline at 1-800-96-ABUSE (22873), or 911. Pasco FREE (pascoFREE@gmail.com) is accepting members—email for details, and anyone wishing to share information with this publication may send an email to edit101@ddpnews.com.

For additional information, go and watch the WEDU video at <http://www.wedu.org/human-trafficking> or contact MyFloridaLegal.com.

Please get involved and ask yourself how your organizations or place of worship can make a difference in the lives of our most vulnerable citizens.

Saddle Up For Charity

Bridging Freedom, Restoring Stolen Childhoods, and Pasco Sheriff Charities team up on Saturday April 22, to raise funds and awareness for victims of Human Trafficking. Come on foot or on horseback to Diamond “B” Ranch, 21309 Kettering Road, Dade City. Gates open at 8:30am, ride starts at 10:00am.

Riders can pre-register for $30 and receive lunch and a T-shirt. Day of the event registration is $35. All proceeds to benefit Bridging Freedoms Equine Therapy Program. Call 813-220-8459 for registration and information, or visit www.bridgingfreedom.org.

IT'S TIME TO GET COMFORTABLE IN YOUR SKIN AGAIN.

ARE YOU GOING TO MAKE 2017 THE YEAR OF YOUR TRANSFORMATION?

"Last January, I was sitting there facing the fact that I had gained 50 pounds, again! I was disgusted with myself. I felt like that is the way it was going to have to be. I had lost weight with dieting before but I couldn't stick with it...I was always gaining it back. The thought of exercising after 40 years of being at a desk job was daunting. I knew I needed to get healthy & fit & I knew I needed somebody to teach me how to do it, so I called Samantha. I'm so happy I did. I am amazed at how my body has transformed approaching age 65 and I love how toned I am now. It's so exciting! My husband says he got his wife back because I am so much happier." Kate

Big Brother and Big Sister of the Year

Two compassionate and dedicated volunteer mentors and the children they have helped navigate through some difficult life challenges have been selected as Tampa Bay's Big and Little Brother and Big and Little Sister of the Year, the local agency announced today.

Big Brother Chris Butler of Largo and his Little Brother Elgin, who have been matched for more than five years, have been named the Big Brother and Little Brother of the Year for BBBS of Tampa Bay, the nation's fourth largest BBBS agency representing Pinellas, Hillsborough, Pasco, Polk, Citrus, Hernando, and Sumter counties. And Big Sister Roxanne Connor of Safety Harbor and her Little Sister Megan, who have been matched in the school-based program at Eisenhower Elementary School in Clearwater for the past three years, have been named the Big Sister and Little Sister of the Year.

Big Brothers and Big Sisters are adult volunteers who are matched with children facing adversity (called "Littles") for professionally-supported one-on-one mentoring. Last year BBBS Tampa Bay matched more than 2,850 children with caring, positive role models. The impact of the relationships is significant, with 98 percent of children matched more than a year being promoted to the next grade level last year, and 98 percent also avoiding any contact with the juvenile justice system.

"Roxanne and Chris have both gone the extra mile in being consistent, thoughtful Bigs to their Littles, including full engagement with their teachers and legal guardians," said Stephen Koch, President and CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay. "The results with their Littles are not surprising—confident, high achievers in school and in life.

Chris, a Senior Vice President in the investment products department at Raymond James, has been matched with Elgin for the past five years. He has seen Elgin grow from a young man to a high school junior, where he plays on the football and basketball teams. Chris has been able to help Elgin navigate through many challenges—the death of two grandparents, personal experiences that caused him to move between family members during his freshman year at high school, friends who had become shooting victims—keeping him on a path to success. He has become like a member of Elgin's family.

Is Travel Insurance Worth It?

Whether planning an extended international vacation or a quick getaway, it's wise to consider coverage. Travel insurance is intended to cover medical expenses, trip cancellation, lost luggage, flight accidents, and other losses incurred while traveling, either internationally or within one's own country.

Since each individual's needs are different, the best insurance option is not always a one-size fits all approach. But comparing policies can help a traveler decide which policy is the best and most appropriate.

Travel insurance can usually be arranged at the time of the booking of a trip to cover exactly the duration of that trip, or a "multi-trip" policy can cover an unlimited number of trips within a set time frame. Some policies offer lower and higher medical-expense options; the higher ones are chiefly for countries that have extremely high medical costs. Medical Expenses coverage can be Per Occurrence or Maximum Limit. Several private organizations will provide medical information and insurance for overseas travelers. Listed below are a few companies we recommend.

St. Patrick

Whose alias was known as Maewyn Succat

Every March 17th, millions of people all over the world put on their best green attire to celebrate in honor of St. Patrick's Day. But who was St. Patrick? To start with, St. Patrick wasn't even Irish, and his real name given at birth was Maewyn Succat, throughout his childhood up until the time he was ordained as a priest.

The beloved apostle was not born on the Emerald Isle but that's about all we know for sure. St. Patrick was born around the end of the 4th century in England Circa, a part of the Britain-Roman Empire.

His story, "The Leaves of the Clover," states that he was born in Bannavem Taberniae in 386 AD, but you won't find that city anywhere on a Britain map today. Even though experts disagree about where he was born, it may have been in England, Scotland, or Wales. But what is clear in the Declaration, which was allegedly written by Patrick himself, is that it is believed that he was born in Roman-Britain into a wealthy Roman-British family.

His father, Calphurnius, was a deacon from a Roman family of high social standing. His mother, Conchessa, was a close relative of the great patron St. Martin of Tours. St. Patrick's grandfather, Pontius, was also a member of the clergy. Surprisingly, St. Patrick himself was not raised with a strong emphasis on religion. Education was not particularly stressed during his childhood either. Even though the boy showed little or no interest in religion, soon all of that would change. Later in life, this would become a source of embarrassment for St. Patrick, who in the early 440's would write in his book "The Confessio," "I blush and fear exceedingly to reveal my lack of education."

When Rome withdrew its allegiance from Britain because of the fall of the west, a group of Irish pirate raiders began to raid Britain. Maewyn at the age of 16 was captured by Irish pirates who brought him to Ireland where he was sold into slavery in Dalriada. His job there was to tend sheep. As he mastered Milchu, he became a high priest of Druidism, a pagan sect that ruled religious influence over Ireland. In viewing his enslavement as God's test of his faith during his six years of captivity, he became deeply devoted to Christianity through constant prayer. In a vision, he saw the children of pagan Ireland reaching out their hands to him. He grew increasingly determined to free the Irish from Druidism by converting them to Christianity.

The idea of escaping enslavement came to St. Patrick in a dream. A voice he believed to be God told him it was time to leave Ireland and that he would find passage on a ship where he could sail back home to England.

Eager to see the dream materialize, St. Patrick convinced some sailors to let him board their ship to France. Lost for 28 days covering about 200 miles of territory in the process, Maewyn at last was reunited with his family.

Now a free man, Maewyn never lost sight of his vision and could not forget the Irish children reaching out to him. In another dream, an angel told him that he must return to Ireland and help the people as a missionary. Maewyn then went to Auxerre, France where he studied and entered the priesthood under the guidance of the missionary St. Germain. As time passed, Pope St. Celestine I consecrated Maewyn as St. Patrick, Bishop of the Irish, so Maewyn adopted the name St. Patrick as an ordained priest and headed back to Ireland through Pope St. Celestine. Spreading "The Good News," Christian Gospel to the pagans, where he was known as a prisoner, he wanted to covert a pagan Celtic culture from sun worship to Christianity, for those who worship the sun will get misfortune and will be punished for doing so. But for those who worship Christ, the true Son will be awarded.

What;#%aaugh... You know I was reading the Dunndead Gazettes this month and it made me feel that things are starting to get better. There's something about that silly paper that makes me feel good! I think it may have something to do with the tickets I received in the mail the other day for playing their games, anyway, I just came by to see if you would like to go to the Renaissance Festival with me.

Cultural Warfare vs. Christian Lifestyle

1 Peter 5:7

Has anyone noticed that as Christians we are in a cultural war? These days are illustrating it more than ever before, at least so it seems. We are clashing on every level of life. In this article I will touch on the clash of Cultural Warfare vs. Christian Lifestyle.

In our culture today, it encourages us to spend all that we make. It aggressively teaches us to be needy and it attaches our self-worth to our net worth. I hope I am not saying anything that is startling here, but just like all other areas in life, God wants us to use our money differently than the world does.

What does a Christian lifestyle look like? Well, let me share a little about what I mean as far as lifestyle and spending.

1) Lifestyle spending is a sum total of all financial spending and is not related to other uses of money.

2) It is typically the most significant use of money.

3) It is the primary determinate of "How much is enough?"

4) It is always money "after taxes."

5) Lifestyles typically drive debt decisions.

In order for us to adopt these principles, let me give you some of the why's and how's with Biblical principles.

1) Financial "contentment" is a choice, not a function of lifestyle.

2) We are commanded to provide for the needs of our family.

3) I must understand that I cannot accumulate enough money to protect my family against all contingencies.

4) I can learn to be content.

5) What lifestyle I choose, I should live with joy.

6) The Bible

does not define a Christian lifestyle. Here are a couple of Bible references: 1 Tim 5:8, 1 Tim 6:6-8, 1 Tim 6:17-18, Phil 4:11-13, and Heb 13:5-6.

Dr. David Jeremiah defines contentment this way:

1) No regrets of the past

2) No fear of the future

3) No envy in the present

So how do I change my habits, behaviors, and thought processes? Here are 7 Principles of Lifestyle change:

1) Prov 3:5-6—Prayfully seek God's direction regarding your lifestyle.

2) Phil 4:11—Learn to be content.

3) Ex 20:17—Learn to avoid coveting.

4) 1 John 2:15-17—Your lifestyle should not be determined by comparing it to others.

5) 1 Tim 4:4—Freely enjoy whatever you spend in the "Spirit."

6) 1 Thess 4:11-12—Make an effort to live more simply.

7) Rom 12:2—Do not conform to the world.

Finally, here are a couple of key points: Spend less than you make, having contentment, delayed gratification, and every spending decision is a spiritual decision.

I hope you find this helpful and hopeful.

Caring for you and yours,
Jim

"I had a long, successful history of advertising with Dunndean Publications for a prior business, so when I began plans for opening Magnolia Manor Assisted Living, I immediately called Dunndean to put an advertising campaign in place. As soon as the papers are circulated each month, my phones ring non-stop. It is not unusual to receive forty calls a day. The calls are from prospective clients, prospective employees, and other businesses seeking to network and share resources. Dunndean covers all my advertising needs and makes a tangible difference in my business success!"

Our Readers Went to the Circus!

Our family was privileged to win tickets to attend the circus on January 29, 2017. We didn't know upon entering the contest that the circus would be closing and that it would be our family's last chance to see it. That fact made the experience even more special and memorable. We so enjoyed the acrobats, animals, and artists of many various talents and we were blessed to experience that together one final time. Thank you for blessing our family with that opportunity!

— Stephen, Jalyn, Marin, and Seaton

I wanted to thank you again for the Circus tickets! It was a great show and a great experience for our kids. The end of a wonderful era! Thanks so much, God Bless you both!!!

— Leeann P.

I want to thank you for the four Circus Tickets that I won. We had a most enjoyable time and really enjoyed the show. Thanks again and keep up the good news in your Gazette! We enjoy reading it! I'm a faithful reader.

— Helen M.

I just wanted to thank you for the tickets to the Ringling Brothers circus. We took our granddaughter who is 7 1/2 years old on Friday, January 27th and she had a wonderful time! She was truly mesmerized by all that she saw and especially loved the camel act not to mention the horses, ponies, dog shows, and all the talented people in the show! We got there early and they had a 45 minute interactive time so we were able to meet the people in the acts and watch them perform right in front of us, which was just so nice! We were quite surprised about the costs of things being sold there, as a bag of cotton candy was $14.00, and a lemonade was $12.00! Anyway, thanks again we truly appreciate the gift and we will never forget this wonderful evening!

— Ted, Robin and Ziya

Thank you Dunndean Publications for our weekend! We love what you do for the community and Christ! Renaissance Festival 2017!

LIVE SEMINAR

For parents and grandparents of children 2-18

This is a great opportunity to bring a group from your church. If you can't make it yourself, maybe you'd consider sending some other leaders or parents who are looking for biblical ideas. We teach a heart-based approach that helps parents and grandparents look deeper than reward and punishment to help kids change. The biblical, practical approach provides parents with tools and strategies they can take home and put into practice right away. As an incentive, we are giving away a free parent training video series to any church who brings 10 or more adults ($199 value)!

Saturday, April 22, 2017

Be A Life Saver!

Oasis is looking for Christian, Pro-Life Women Volunteers

Various Positions Available

One 3-4 hour shift per week required. Experience at a pregnancy center a plus but not required. We will train you!

If interested, please call 813-406-4965 and ask for Anita.

From Abortion to Eternal Life

When 17-year-old Lacey learned she was pregnant, she knew the only course of action was abortion. She sought out Oasis to learn more getting one. The volunteer client educator listened to Lacey compassionately and walked her through all the options, but Lacey hardened her heart to all choices except abortion.

At the end of the session the volunteer asked Lacey if she could pray with her, and when she agreed, something shifted. Lacey felt it as she was prayed over, and although she'd never been to church before and didn't believe in God, she felt something.

The day before her scheduled abortion, Lacey knew she couldn't do it. That prayer had changed her heart, and she reached back out to Oasis for more support.

Lacey opened her heart to the Lord, gave birth to her baby, and now she and her family are serving God. Lacey's baby's life was saved and so was Lacey's—eternally.

Stories like these are common at Oasis Pregnancy Care Center. We are making a difference for the kingdom and we need your help! If God is leading you to minister life, Oasis will train you. All it takes is one four-hour shift per week. Call Anita Albert-Watson at 813-406-4965 for more information.

Quality Senior Home Care Services

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Sometimes due to injury, illness, or normal aging, an older adult may need extra help to remain safely at home. Local residents Ada Tapper, DNP, ARNP, Director/Clinical Administrator and David Eason, Business Development Manager, realized the growing need for support services in the Tampa Bay area and jointly opened ComForCare Home Care.

“We provide the day-to-day care that your loved one may need instead of or in addition to care by a nurse or other health professional.”

ComForCare’s compassionate, well-trained caregivers help seniors live independently while continuing to enjoy the things they love. When family members and friends can’t be there, ComForCare Home Care can provide quality non-medical assistance delivered through a personalized care plan.

Services can include grooming and hygiene, bathing and toileting, meal preparation, transportation and errands, medication reminders, safety supervision, light house-keeping, companionship, and family respite.

TRULY THE BEST!

Dear George,
I would like to take the time to thank you for teaching me the best and safest way to drive. You made the learning experience hours of fun memories and great techniques that I will take on for the rest of my life. I enjoyed every lesson and truly can say I am thankful to have learned the RIGHT ways of driving and to be aware of my surroundings at all times. To future drivers, I personally recommend George as an instructor because not only will you learn a tremendous amount of driving procedures, you also receive life long lessons from him. Thank you so very much George for being patient and risking your life while teaching students to operate a vehicle. You are truly the BEST!

"God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be greatly encouraged. We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek."

In Touch Ministries, Jan. 30, 2017
Daily Readings for Devoted Living
Intouch.org

Prayer

With regard to Satan, without a doubt, we're never going to destroy him. He's going to be around until Jesus sends him into the Abyss. He's also never going to surrender or just quit fighting because we decide to pray.

He can't quit. This is what he does because this is what he is! Satan is a killer, a thief, a murderer, a liar, a destroyer. Our prayers aren't ever going to turn him into a nice guy. He's not going to enter into diplomatic talks with us. But Jesus has given us His authority and enough power through this thing called prayer to cause Satan and his forces to retreat.

We can push him back, we can disrupt his activity, we can cause his destruction to roll backwards, and then when that happens we can rush in through prayer and put up the flag of Jesus in that space Satan once occupied in people's lives.

We can also defend people through our prayers because, for sure, Satan will launch a counterattack against them. But that's okay because God has already told us to "stand firm." Don't give up an inch. Hold the line and then push forward again in prayer without ceasing.

So, whatever you do this session, don't go AWOL! Don't choose your pride or your religious comfort over opening your mouth and praying for another soul sitting right there in a room with you who could use your fire-power. It's time to pray. CHARGE!!

The Well meets at the First Baptist Church of Lutz, located at 18116 N US Highway 41 Lutz, FL 33549.

New Clinic Opens in Tampa

A new primary care and diabetes practice has opened its doors in north Tampa and is accepting new patients. New laws that went into effect January 1, 2017, loosen practice and prescribing restrictions for Nurse Practitioners. The new center, Your Best You, P.A., is located at 15511 North Florida Avenue, Suite 502, Tampa, Florida 33613 and is owned by Shani V. Davis, Ph.D., ANP-BC, CDE, a Tampa nurse practitioner. Evidence suggests that nurse-delivered care is associated with improved patient health-related self-care behavior as well as greater chronic disease prevention and control.

Just Palms

Chris Tillman

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

Transform Your Outdoor Area

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Lakefront Beach Cleaning, LLC offers pond cleaning, lake treatment, lake design, lake maintenance, and restoration of swimming areas to a natural white sand bottom.

This family-run local business has 37 years of experience caring for Florida's lakes and ponds. Jerry Muncey runs the business originally started by his aunt and uncle in 1979.

Removing excess vegetation and foliage to create a park-like setting is arduous work requiring special equipment and skills. Lakefront Beach Cleaning, LLC has a trusted relationship with the Environmental Protection Commission (EPC) and the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP). They obtain the necessary permits required and maintain a flawless reputation for their professional and personalized service.

Lakefront Beach Cleaning, LLC serves of the entire Tampa Bay area with beach cleaning for lakes and ponds as well as yard and hurricane cleanup.

Visit www.hollowayslfbcc.com for photos and additional information and find this environmentally-approved company on Google Plus. Call 813-920-7134 and start planning your own lakefront oasis!

Huzzah and Cheers for 39 Years!

The Bay Area Renaissance Festival is back and celebrating 39 years of family fun. It has gone from small beginnings in the city of Largo to one of Tampa's finest regional attractions.

The Bay Area Renaissance Festival was first held in 1979 in the city of Largo. This inaugural Festival featured renaissance dancing, archery contests, jugglers, mimes, and madrigals. By 1980, the Festival had added food booths, a human chess match, and a unique marketplace.

As attendance to the popular event grew, so did the number of artisans, demonstrations, entertainers, and foods. The show has continued to develop fans throughout the years, offering more each year in entertainment, education, food, and art.

Time Travelers: March 11th & 12th: Steampunk Invasion and Costume Contest, Belly Dancing Championships, World Market, Dr. Who Costume Contest, and ALL NEW Time Traveler's Ball.

Shamrocks & Shenanigans: March 18th & 19th: Largest St. Paddy's Day Party in Tampa, Green Beer, Highland Heavy Games, Celtic Village with Men in Kilts competition and ALL NEW Bonnie Knees Competition.

Barbarian Brew Fest: March 25th & 26th: Craft Beer Tasting, Best Beard Competition, the State Royal Archery Championships, and Deaf Awareness Weekend

Free Beer Festival Friday: March 31st: Every ticket gets a free beer! Military and First Responder Appreciation, Ladies' Shopping Day, School Day, and the Masquerade Ball that night!

High Seas Adventure: April 1st & 2nd: Tattoo Competition, Swab the Deck, Pirate Peg Leg Relay Racing, and the Perfect Pirate Competition.

Pure Health & Fitness Studios

Samantha Taylor

“I’ve been one of their longest-running advertisers for thirteen years and have been absolutely amazed with my experience. This paper has been the BIGGEST factor God has used for my success as a Personal Trainer and Weight Loss Expert.

Thanks to THIS paper, it’s contributed to me successfully training over 4,500 women. Even though I got calls from day one, the thing I’ve been lately amazed with is how many loyal readers this paper has.

I get calls from people that have been reading my articles for years and since they are now ready to get in better shape and better health, they call me because I’ve been the trusted source they’ve seen for so many years in THIS paper.

Even in tough times, I’ve never, nor will I ever, stop advertising in this paper. It’s been a tool that has built my business to be one of the most successful Personal Training Studios around. Thank you, Dunndean Publications! I wouldn’t have done it without you!”
