Will You Pray For Our Nation?

In the face of widespread insecurity, fear, and hopelessness, our nation desperately needs your prayers.

Today we are surrounded by the effects of forgetting—even forsaking—God, both as a nation and as individuals. The problem is too big for human effort. Our nation has a heart problem, and only God can fix it. Will you join us in prayer as we ask God to heal our land?

We have a promise from the Lord: “If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear

“We Believe in Miracles”

Ashley Smith

As a child growing up in the mission fields of Australia, Pastor Rob Scarallo was aware of God’s healing grace. He experienced his own miraculous healing from a serious and debilitating disease, and he witnessed others healed in body and soul through the ministry of his missionary parents. Pastor Rob grew into adulthood with a well-cultivated trust in God and a strong belief in miracles. He established four churches in Australia before God called him to found a church in Florida. Led to the wide open spaces of Oldsmar a decade ago,

If you like authentic Mexican food and drink without the long drive to Tampa, then you are going to love the Mexican Sombrero Bar & Grill now open on North Florida Avenue in Lutz.

Tampa Bay entrepreneur Earsto Garcia and his wife Maritza owned and operated Garibaldi Sports Bar & Grill on Hillsborough Avenue for eight years before opening the new Lutz location in the fall of 2015. If you haven’t already discovered this excellent eatery, don’t waste any more time before stopping in.

It’s happy hour from 11:00am until 9:00pm seven days a week at the Mexican Sombrero. Select your favorite beverage from a long list of flavored margaritas, sangria, and domestic beers and enjoy two for one pricing all day long.

How Do You See Yourself?

In Numbers 13-14, Moses had been commanded by the Lord to send out men to explore the Land of Canaan. This was the land that flowed with milk and honey. This was the land of their inheritance the Lord had promised to give them. The men returned with a great report of a bountiful country, however, they also saw all the giants in the land they had to conquer. Thus, they came back greatly discouraged!! Unfortunately, all they could see was that these giants were going to devour them, and they compared themselves to their stature. They said, “We felt like grasshoppers,” and they presumed to think that these giants thought of them in the same manner.

Maybe your promised land is a new job, a home, a resolved court case, a health issue that needs a miracle, a change in your circumstances or your finances, a healed relationship, or the beginning of a new season in life.

Maybe you’ve thought this is my rightful inheritance as a child of the King. However, in your mind, the giants of fear, insecurity, comparing yourself to others, and your own inabilities have spoken to you. They have caused you to become just like these men, paralyzed with fear and unbelief, and you feel just like a fragile grasshopper, a person that feels like a “less than” to receive your land of promise.

What held Israel back from receiving wasn’t the giants in the land but their own self-destructive limitations. Upon hearing their negative report, the whole congregation began to cry and complain. They were filled with self-pity, even questioning the goodness of God to bring them to such a place. Maybe you are in such a place right now, and the promise of God seems too hard to possess. People and their opinions matter so much to you they hold you in captivity. If that’s you, today is your day to begin to turn it around and recognize a new way.

You see, there were also two men that spied out this same Promised Land who saw things differently. They would not let all the opinions of the other men affect them. They chose to believe that if God led them to this Promised Land that he was well able to help them possess it!! They chose to believe in God’s ability instead of their own. They chose to not fear but be filled with faith (confidence) instead of doubt. They chose not to complain and become sidetracked by the appearance of these giants. They chose to believe that God had a good plan!! Sometimes a simple adjustment in attitude can make all the difference. Humble yourself under the mighty hand of God in prayer and let him infuse you with fresh eyes to see your promised land with the courage to go in and possess it. Food for thought!

National PB&J Day

April 2nd is a special day for both young and old. As I was looking at the month of April, I noticed that this day is designated as “National Peanut Butter and Jelly Day;”

yes, it really is! I’m sure sometime in our lives, we have all had a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Many children practically live on them! Seeing this special day on the calendar reminded me of the children we have here at Hope Children’s Home in Tampa. They are children just like children all over the world, and I am sure they have a PB&J every now and then. From what I have heard, a PB&J sandwich can be considered “comfort food,” maybe just what one needs at the time. As you probably are aware, we are 100% privately funded and our care depends upon God, of course, and the faithfulness of many like you. Peanut butter and jelly are both staple items we always need. “National Peanut Butter and Jelly Day” would be a great time to help us with his need! Maybe you could purchase them and drop it by or you can check out our website to see other needs we have or even give through our Giving Catalog where you can give an online donation for a specific item. Of course, general online donations are always a huge help as well! PB&J’s might bring your mind back to when you were a child, so this is a great opportunity to impact the future for a child. God bless you and thank you for thinking of Hope.

The Breaking Point

Samantha Taylor, Pure Health Elite Fitness Studios

Many of us have a place in our life where we reach a point of frustration and we just can’t take it anymore. I call that our Breaking Point. The good thing is the breaking point can actually help us in life because it forces us to do something about our situation when we have become so uncomfortable with ourselves that we actually get fed up and we do something to make a change.

One particular breaking point that happens for many women is when their largest size clothes don’t even fit anymore and they refuse to buy a bigger size. This can actually be a healthy boundary to have for yourself—to refuse to continue to go up in larger-sized clothes. This can be a good breaking point because when your largest size doesn’t fit anymore and you won’t buy more clothes, then you will be forced to do something about the weight. By the sheer default of being so uncomfortable in your clothes that you can hardly breathe, you reach that breaking point to say, “This has got to stop! I must do something!” Or you bend down to pick something up and the button pops off!

You can use that frustration in a way to motivate yourself as you decide you aren’t going to put up with it another day. That is one great thing, yet also one challenge about our God-given free will. You can decide to do something, or you can decide not to. It is YOUR choice! However, with that choice will come consequence or great reward.

So my question to you is, “Have you reached your breaking point?” Have you realized you just aren’t going to take it another day? To see improvement, you have to refuse to accept mediocrity, and be unhappy with yourself enough to do something about it. Tony Robbins (a behavior expert) says, “To make it real, you schedule it and take immediate action towards it.”

What can you schedule in your life THIS week to make it more real? Something that will move you forward in the direction that you want to go with your health and fitness. Put it on your calendar or even stop and do something about it right now! Think of what it is that you can do and do it! There is great power in taking immediate action when you are excited to do something about it.

If one thing you can do is watch a free online seminar I have called, “Fixing Your Metabolism,” then go watch it right away. That will help you take that next step to doing something about your breaking point and turning it in something that catapulted you into victory. You can do it!!! Go to <http://purehealthstudios.com/freedom>. Of course, you can also set a Body Transformation Analysis up with me so we can map out a plan to your success. Go here to do this: www.schedulebta.com.

Most of all, please take action towards your health for you and your family. Don’t wait until your breaking point is a health crisis where you are forced to take action and have negative consequences from it, like a heart attack or stroke instead of choosing to do something about it proactively. Summer is almost here. It’s a great time to get into shape now!

Which of These Costly Home Sellers' Mistakes Will You Make When You Sell Your Home?

Tampa Bay Area—A new report has just been released which reveals 7 costly mistakes that most homeowners make when selling their homes, and a 9 Step System that can help

This industry report shows clearly how the traditional ways of selling homes have become increasingly less and less effective in today's market. As this report uncovers, most home Sellers make 7 deadly mistakes that cost them literally thousands of dollars. The good news is that each and every one of these mistakes is entirely preventable.

In answer to this issue, industry insiders have prepared a Free Special Report entitled "The 9 Step System to Get Your Home Sold Fast and For Top Dollar".

These six strategies will help you make informed choices before you put your home on the market in anticipation of moving to a larger home.

What is Your Definition of a Worldview?

James H. Willis, III

Founder and President
The Willis Agency, Inc
813-948-9109

Jim@TheWillisAgency.com

www.TheWillisAgency.com

1 Peter 5:7

According to the dictionary, a worldview is “the overall perspective, from which ones sees and interprets the world” or “it is a collection of beliefs about life and the universe, held by an individual or group..” It can also be said that it is “the sum total of my convictions about myself and the world I live in.” So, basically, our worldview should drive how we run our lives.

George Barna, in his research, a “Biblical Worldview,” stated the need to believe in an absolute truth. This truth can only be found in the Bible—the Word of God. As many Christians as there are who believe in Jesus, there are only 9% who think like Jesus. This is a startling truth and one that sends an inconsistent message.

All worldviews can be lumped into 3 grand philosophies:

1. Theism
2. Transcendentalism
3. Naturalism

Experts realize that a worldview must be lived out completely, and many agree that theism offers the only workable worldview for our lives. They found Biblical wisdom is timeless, transcendent, accurate, universal, and practical, knowing that God alone is the source.

So, let me ask you, “Have you thought about what is your worldview?” And, if you are a Christian, “How are you actually living this out?”

Allow me to suggest helpful hints:

1. The beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord (Prov. 9:10, 2:6)
2. This wisdom is found in the Bible—God’s word (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
3. We are guided to truth by the Holy Spirit (John 16:13)
4. And, we are each given a core value of community (1 Cor. 12:7)

A look at what our results will be: Confidence in knowing who we are and where we are going. Peace of mind that soothes the soul and rids us of worry and guilt. Eternal perspective in that it is not all about the here and now, but eternity. We can focus our lives on God’s agenda, not ours. God is God, I am not. What a relief that is! Right?

So, what is guiding your life? Your worldview? You can write out your own worldview now. Blessings.

Caring for you and yours,
Jim

“All this I have spoken while still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.” — John 14:25-27

“We Believe in Miracles”

Pastor Rob wondered “Why here? Why now?” God soon revealed his reasons as the area grew to include businesses, hotels, and homes. Grace and Faith Church was perfectly positioned for revival.

This truly diverse church offers ministries for all ages, regular church services, and guest appearances by locally and nationally known individuals who have experienced miracles in their own lives. Pastor Rob uses an interview style approach to bring these amazing stories of faith and grace to the public.

Mark your calendars now and plan to attend Sunday morning, April 24 at 10:30am when Pastor Rob will interview Ashley Smith, the real life survivor featured in the Paramount movie Captive. Ashley Smith was first featured nationally in March of 2005 when she was held hostage in her Atlanta apartment by convicted murderer Brian Nichols.

Ms. Smith has appeared on Oprah, and co-authored Unlikely Angel with author Stacy Mattingly. On Saturday, April 23, Ashley will host a Ladies Only event at the church at 7:00pm. Ladies will enjoy an evening of fellowship and door prizes with this remarkable guest.

different ministries working with children of all ages, but I wanted to try something new. When I found out about LifeChoices Women's Care, I hurried for the opportunity to experience something new. A client can enter and feel the love as it overflows from the warmth of each person's heart. ## GFWC Flea Market

GFWC Lutz-Land O'Lakes Woman's Club has recently concluded another very successful Flea Market and wishes to thank the community for donations and support at the sale itself. The club is very pleased that it has exceeded all prior years' Flea Market sales and broken its own records by about $30 going back three decades! A portion of the proceeds will go toward scholarships, and the balance will be applied toward the many club-supported charities and community groups. Even the leftovers in the aftermath of the sale have benefitted numerous local charities. ## Your Home Doesn't Come With A Lifeguard

Staying safe around water is more than staying near the lifeguard at the pool. Every year, many children drown in residential swimming pools, bath tubs, buckets of water, and other containers of water. Here in Florida, there is a pool in nearly every back yard. However, the beach and swimming pools are not the only dangers. Anywhere there is water there is risk for drowning. Do not leave a young child unattended near any source of water, not even for a moment.

Remove the risk and prevent access

- Use physical barriers to prevent children from accessing any source of water.
- Use safety locks on toilets and keep bathroom doors closed and toilet-bowl covers down if there are small children in the home.
- Empty cleaning buckets immediately after use.
- Empty kiddie pools immediately after use.
- Install barriers around your home pool. Pool alarms and covers provide additional layers of protection.
- Know the water hazards in your community and make sure children stay away. These hazards could include: drainage ditches, garden ponds, creeks and streams, wells and cisterns, and canals.
- When visiting another home, check the site for potential water hazards and always supervise children.

Practice water safety

- Teach children to always ask permission to go near water.
- Never leave a young child unattended in a bathtub and do not trust a child's life to another child or to aids that help a child sit upright in the tub.

- Have young children or inexperienced swimmers wear a U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jacket around water.
- When swimming, set specific rules for each individual based on swimming ability.
- Assign a person to watch over children when they are in, on, or around a body of water.

Know how to respond to an emergency

- If a child is missing, check the water first. Seconds count in preventing death or disability.
- Know how and when to call 9-1-1 or the local emergency number.
- Enroll in water safety, Red Cross first aid, and CPR courses to learn what to do.
- Have appropriate equipment, such as reaching or throwing equipment, a cell phone, life jackets and a first aid kit.

A Century of Water Safety

For the past century, the American Red Cross has helped millions of people learn to swim and be water smart. To honor our 100 years of water safety, we launched the Centennial Campaign—a multi-year action to lower drowning rates by 50% in 50 local communities. The campaign is a multi-year action that will increase our impact by 50,000 and hopefully inspire many more people to sign up for swimming and water safety lessons at local facilities.

The American Red Cross offers numerous swimming and water safety programs for children, parents, and swim coaches. Learn about the six-level Learn-to-Swim program, find out about preschool aquatics programs, or learn about Safety Training for Swim Coaches. To find classes for your family, contact your local aquatic facility and ask for American Red Cross Learn-to-Swim programs. For more information, please contact your local American Red Cross office or visit www.redcross.org.

3 Steps to Winning Your Loved Ones to Jesus

1. Stand on God's guarantee for the salvation of your family.

The Philippian jailer who guarded Paul and Silas during a violent earthquake pleaded, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” (Acts 16:30). He was told, “Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” (verse 31). Look at what happened next: “They spoke unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.” (verse 32). Each of your loved ones has free will, of course, but you can begin to claim God's promises for them.

2. Pray for lost loved ones to be saved.

Interceding for the lost and hurting is a mighty calling. It's natural to begin with a desire to reach out to loved ones. The Bible tells us, “The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” (Luke 19:10). Claim that promise!

3. Take authority over the forces of evil.

The battle for souls must be won in the spiritual realm before it can be won in the physical realm, for “we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” (Ephesians 6:12). Take authority over the enemy. Prepare to dominate the dominator and torment the tormentor!

Will You Pray For Our Nation?

Please also join us in prayer for the millions of individuals who are at a critical crossroad and don't even know it. Pray that those who don't know Jesus Christ will turn and find forgiveness, hope, and peace in Him. Let's stand together and ask God to pour out His Spirit on our nation.

Commit to join us today in concerted prayer, and we'll send you updates on the lifesaving work of evangelism.

What is a Family MED Pack?

leads worship services for local Christians and Muslims who are interested in learning about the God of love. He can be targeted by Muslim extremists at any time he chooses to serve, but he knows that his life and the lives of his family members are in God's hands. As ISIS has advanced through parts of the Middle East, The Voice of Martyrs has increased its ministry efforts to our Christian brothers and sisters who face persecution at the hands of Islamic extremists. They who have lost everything because of their faith.

VOM has provided food, shelter, clothing, and Bibles to more than 18,000 Christian families. This program is a great way to get involved helping Christians fleeing ISIS. Visit www.persecution.com/packs or call 877-337-0302 to learn more.

Through VOM, you can help Christians fleeing from ISIS and other extremists by providing a simple care package called a Family Med Pack. These packs are filled with everyday health and medical items such as Band-Aids, gauze, medical tape, washcloths, toothbrushes, soap, and other items.

Mohammad and his family lived in a tent. They were forced to flee their home in Mosul, Iraq, after ISIS invaded in June 2014. Because he was a Christian converted from Islam, ISIS would have executed Mohammed if they had caught him and he had refused to renounce Christ. Muhammad became a Christian in 2005 after having a dream and vision of Jesus. His wife rejected his newfound faith until three months later when she had a similar experience. Today, while living in a refugee camp, Mohammed

The Qur'an And The Three Verses

That All Christians Should Know

Islam is often presented as a very simple religion. It's just the submission to Allah, but if you dig a little deeper, you find out in Qur'an 4:65 that submission to Allah requires complete obedience to all of Mohammed's decisions. That's where Islam gets a lot more complicated, because Mohammed's decisions

THANKS TO OUR CHRISTIAN BUSINESS PARTNERS!

For the great services you provide. I recently had my carpets cleaned by Tim, owner of Ultimate Tile & Grout, and my windows cleaned by Lewis and his son, owners of Sunshine State Window Washing. They both gave excellent results and offered fellowship after the work was completed. They are both ethical and trustworthy. We also have been shopping for our landscaping supplies at Cypress Creek Landscape Supply. Give these folks the opportunity to earn your business!

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

Three Verses In The Qur'an

are spread across thousands of stories in Hadith that constitute source of guidance for Muslims apart from the Qur'an. Keep in mind that there are more than 1.6 billion Muslims in the world, and many of them are Muslims who place a strong emphasis on preaching and winning converts to change others religious faith or beliefs.

ISIS extremists' efforts to persecute Christian Muslims to change, get out, or die sounds a lot like the Spanish Inquisition in 1492 when that nation's Catholic rulers declared that all Jews who refused to convert would be expelled from Spain. 1492 was also the year Christopher Columbus left Spain to discover America.

Chances are, you're not going be around when your children's friends preach Islam to them or when they go to school or college and hear about how wonderful Islam is. Not just from their friends but also from their professors. So in general, it makes sense that Christians should know something about the Qur'an because most Christians don't have the time or the resources to know what Islam teaches.

David Wood has narrowed down these three verses that all Christians around the world should know something about. First know that the holy Qur'an is divided into chapters called (Surah) and further divided into verses called (ayat). In the Qur'an 4:157 gives you the Islamic view of Jesus' crucifixion: Qur'an 4:157 "They said (in boast), "We killed Christ Jesus the son of Mary, the Messenger of Allah.' But they killed him not, nor crucified him, but so it was made to appear to them, and those who differ therein are full of doubts, with no (certain) knowledge, but only conjecture to follow, for of a surety they killed him not." Notice that Jesus was never killed, he wasn't even crucified. Islam denies the crucifixion of Jesus ever took place. But if Jesus was never crucified, why do Christians believe he died on the cross? The Islamic view is that Allah miraculously disguised someone making him look like Jesus, and he was crucified, not Jesus.

The reason you believe Jesus was crucified, according to Islam, is that Allah did an excellent job tricking everybody. It's interesting to wonder how far false prophets will go in order to deny what Jesus did for us. Muslims often claim the Bible has been corrupted, but there are plenty of verses in the Quran that show that if the Bible has been corrupted, Allah surely doesn't know anything about it. Quran 5:47 is one of those verses. Here, he commands Christians to judge by the gospel: Qur'an 5:47 "Let the People of the Gospel judge by what Allah hath revealed therein. If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) those who rebel."

Allah commands us to judge by the gospel, and He says we are rebels if we don't. Clearly we can only judge by the gospel if we actually have the gospel. So if we obey Allah and we judge by the gospel, we have to judge that Islam is false, because Islam contradicts the gospel when it says that Jesus died on the cross. If you have never understood why Christians and others are horribly mistreated in places like Iraq, Egypt, and Pakistan, the reason for the abuse is found in the Qur'an. Allah commands Muslims once they're in the majority to violently subjugate Christians and Jews.

Allah says in Qur'an 9:29, "Fight those who believe not in Allah nor the last day, nor hold that forbidden which hath been forbidden by Allah and His Messenger, nor acknowledge the Religion of Truth, from among the People of the Book, until they pay the Jizyah with willing submission and feel themselves subdued."

Notice Allah commanded Muslims to fight people based on their beliefs, and the people he is referring to are Christians and Jews. So Muslims are commanded to fight us until we pay tribute to them, acknowledge our inferiority and status as second class citizens, as we don't have the same rights as Muslims. This command has probably lead to more depression than any other command in history. If people don't know anything about Islam, Muslim preachers as well as groups like CARE and ISIS can say pretty much anything they want.
