Mother – Where Would We Be Without Her?

Every year on Mother's Day, moms all over the world receive cards, flowers, phone calls, and macaroni jewelry boxes, all of them with the same sentiment. Thanks, mom! But dear old mom's sweet day of gratitude left its creator quite bitter.

The ancient Greeks were among the first to pay tribute to moms. Their spring festival honored Rhea, the mother of all Greek gods; that holiday didn't pan out. In medieval Britain, servants were given the fourth Sunday of Lent to go home to spend a day with their moms. This custom was called Mothering Sunday. But the modern era Mother's Day was created by Anna Marie Jarvis. Anna admired her mother, who attended to the wounded during the Civil War and later became a community activist.

When young Anna was 12, it was believed that she heard her mother pray that one day, there might be a memorial day for mothers, for all the good they do. Young Anna never forgot the prayer, and when her mom died in May of 1905, a plan for Mother's Day was born.

On the second anniversary of her mom's death, Anna held a church memorial dedicated to her mother's good deeds. In May of 1908, Anna held another memorial and handed out white carnations, her mom's favorite flower. She contacted Philadelphia philanthropist John Wanamaker, who joined a Mother's Day committee in hopes of honoring all mothers all across the nation. In 1910, West Virginia became the first state to observe the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. After a fierce letter-writing campaign, Anna got Congress to federally recognize the holiday.

Say Goodbye to the Stress and the Mess of Collecting a Urine Sample!

Have you ever had difficulty collecting a urine sample for yourself, your child, or someone in your care? Don't worry, you're not alone! In fact, 84% of female patients surveyed admitted to getting urine on their own hand during the collection process.

Thanks to Tampa entrepreneur Colleen Meloff, you will no longer have to experience the stress and the mess of urine collection! Colleen created a product called EZ CATCH, a disposable plastic handle that holds a urine cup and provides patients with a more comfortable, sanitary, and effective means to collect a sample. Colleen's invention was initially inspired by personal experience. While she was pregnant, she was routinely asked to provide a urine sample, and quickly realized what a difficult and unsanitary process it was. After each collection, she noticed that there was urine on the bathroom floor from previous patients, as well as on her own hand.

After extensive market research, Colleen discovered that women of all ages have similar stories. Parents of pediatric patients often times have to place their hand inside the toilet. Pregnant women have difficulty reaching around their growing belly. Elderly patients who need assistance with collecting a sample may experience embarrassment and discomfort when a nurse has to place their hand directly under them.

EZ CATCH allows patients, parents, and caregivers to keep their hand at least 6 inches from the urine stream. In addition, EZ CATCH reduces contamination and the need for retesting, so patients can be diagnosed and treated more quickly. Overall, this saves time, money, and stress for patients and practitioners.

Recently launched throughout Tampa Bay, EZ CATCH was quickly approved by one of the largest medical groups in Florida, BayCare. The patient feedback is unanimous that EZ CATCH should be the standard of practice for female patients collecting a urine sample.

Colleen would appreciate any help her local community can provide! Please share your feedback, relatable stories, and ways you can help spread the word by emailing cmeloff@carefullproducts.com.

Place an order for EZ CATCH by emailing cmeloff@carefullproducts.com or by calling (813) 602-2824.

Free samples for medical practices, hospitals, and laboratories can also be requested.

EZ CATCH is patent pending and is manufactured locally in the Tampa Bay area.

For more information, visit <http://www.carefullproducts.com> and support EZ CATCH by visiting Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/theezcatch>.

What Does the Bible Say About the Virgin Mary?

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was described by God as "highly favored" (Luke 1:28). The phrase "highly favored" comes from a single Greek word, which essentially means "much grace." Mary received God's grace.

Grace is "unmerited favor," meaning something we receive despite the fact that we do not deserve it. Mary needed grace from God just as the rest of us do. Mary herself understood this fact, as she declared in Luke 1:47.

Mary recognized that she needed the Savior. The Bible never says that Mary was anyone but an ordinary human whom God chose to use in an extraordinary way. Yes, Mary was a righteous woman and favored with grace by God (Luke 1:27-28). At the same time, Mary was a sinful human being who needed Jesus Christ as her Savior, just like everyone else (Ecclesiastes 7:20, Romans 3:23, Romans 1-7, Greetings from Paul).

(1 John 1:8) Mary did not have an "immaculate conception." The Bible doesn't suggest Mary's birth was anything but a normal human birth. Mary was a virgin when she gave birth to Jesus (Luke 1:34-38) but the idea of the perpetual virginity of Mary is unbiblical (Matthew 1:25). Speaking of Joseph, the Bible declares, "But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave Him the name Jesus."

After training over 4,000 women to lose 65 tons of fat and maintaining my own weight for 13 years, I have learned that weight loss starts in your head. Many of the reasons why we become overweight are because of our thought life and what we believe is acceptable for our bodies and our lives.

Unfortunately, this can be programmed into us from childhood. Some had a skinny sister whom they were always compared to or a mean brother that would make jokes about their weight, or some were abused as a child so they turned to food to emotionally comfort themselves. Whatever the reason is that you are stuck, meaning no matter what you do, it doesn't seem like you can get yourself to stick to any plan, the first place to start is to realize it starts in your head.

Addressing our thought life is just as important as what we eat because if you don't improve the way you think about food and your relationship with it, then you are not going to stick with eating a healthier way. The question is, how do you have lasting change? Not just lose 30 pounds but how do you keep it off and not feel like it's a battle?

It has to do with learning how to think differently about food and why you choose the foods you eat. And also learning how to stop eating emotionally, out of boredom, from cravings, or impulses. When you can actually get to a place that you consciously choose a meal based on the outcome of that meal not only 30 minutes from when you eat it but thinking about the outcome the next day, week, or month, this is when you know you have matured in your relationship with food.

It's called "mindful eating." Why? Because so many of us eat mindlessly and we just grab whatever is there or whatever we are craving. It's as if we forget at that moment how much we are going to regret it after we eat it. And actually you do forget at that moment, so the goal is to learn how to get yourself to stop and think about what you are doing, being mindful about your food choices.

I heard an acronym years ago called STOP: S=Stop, T=Think, O=Options, P=Pick a choice. Today I want you to stop and think before you eat each meal. What are your options? Pick a choice based on a conscious decision of an outcome you will be happy with, not just a decision on impulse.

Your temptations may say, "Oh, I will be happy with the outcome of eating 4 donuts." But in reality, we know that after that flavor and experience is done about 10 minutes later, you usually regret it. So learn how to stop yourself before you eat it.

That is how I overcame my food issues and how I have helped so many people do the same. I am talking about mindful eating at my next free seminar May 15th. See my ad in this paper for more details. To learn more, go to this website at purehealthstudios.com.

meet our 2015 GRADUATES

Spring is not only a beautiful time of the year with the flowers and new growth around us, but it is also a time when many young people begin an exciting part of their life after graduation. It is no different here at Hope Christian School on the campus of Hope Children's Home.

We have five graduating from K5 and one young lady graduating from high school this year. Our senior, Brittany came to us 12 years ago along with her brother, Michael. Their story is somewhat typical of many children here at Hope. Their parents were divorced, and when the father remarried, the "new mom" was abusive resulting in the dad placing the children here at Hope. This actually happened a few times until they were finally left here permanently. Brittany is grateful for the loving family she now has and is excited about what the future holds. She is preparing for college in the fall. Although she's not quite sure what the Lord wants her to do, she has an interest in Dentistry and Criminal Justice. As her new journey begins, we are reminded why God has allowed Hope Children's Home to exist. Where would people like Brittany be if it were not for a place she could come and be loved, cared for, and receive Godly instruction from the Hope family and school? Thank you for your support as we help children like Brittany in, "Reaching the Next Generation."

Human Trafficking In Tampa Bay (Part six of an ongoing series)

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Since December 2014, Dunndead Publications has donated this space monthly to educate our readership on the modern day horror that is human trafficking. Month after month, the grim facts have filled these pages, facts like:

- The United States of America is the #1 consumer of trafficked human beings
- Florida is third in the nation as a human trafficking destination
- The Tampa Bay area ranks between second and third place in the state
- 83% of the victims are American citizens, with an average age of 12
- A human trafficking victim has a typical life expectancy of only 7 years
- Sex, forced labor, and organ harvesting are components of trafficking

Ways to safely recognize and report possible abuse has also been outlined in this space.

- Never try to intervene or rescue anyone personally
- Report your suspicions anonymously to local law enforcement, the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888, the U.S. Department of Justice Hotline at 1-888-428-7581, the Florida Abuse Hotline 1-800-96-ABUSE (22873), or 911.

Our local law enforcement officers and States Attorney, Pam Bondi, are making progress in identifying these criminals and rescuing the victims. Locating and rescuing a victim is the critical first step in restoring the mental and physical health of an exploited and enslaved individual, but what needs to happen next is no easy task.

Edie Rhea, the founder of Healing Root Ministry, knows what is involved in the long way back from victim to survivor. Edie herself was a victim of human trafficking from the age of 10-17. She knows things are not always what they seem. Abuse may be going on right before your eyes. Someone may need you to notice, someone may need you to make the difference.

Victims need medical care and basic necessities—food, clothing, and shelter. Rehabilitation is a slow process requiring time and resources. Many of these victims have been denied a chance to attend or finish school. Once rescued, a victim needs to develop the skills and education needed to become a survivor and to eventually thrive. The Salvation Army will provide GED classes at no charge to ensure the rescued girls receive an education.

Healing Root Ministry operates a safe house for victims to reclaim their lives. Edie estimates the cost to provide the resources for her five bed facility, two-year recovery program at $350,000 annually. Grants, donations, and fundraising help to cover the expenses.

Natasha Nascimento, the Founder of Redefining Refuge, operates a safe house for girls age 12-17. It is the first of its kind in the state and also operates with limited resources and a demand for additional beds. Both facilities have long wish lists which include personal products, toiletries, household items, gift cards, movie passes, games, magazines, office supplies, and arts and crafts products. A volleyball net and ball and a hammock and porch swing would make outdoor activities possible and enjoyable, and room decorations would allow the girls to personalize their spaces.

Call Edie Rhea at 813-458-5970 and schedule training for your church, group or organization, and learn how you can help recover a life. Call Natasha Nascimento at 813-909-0300 to volunteer, offer financial support, schedule a training opportunity, or collect items for the wish list.

What Do Jewish Feast Days Mean?

You see, many centuries prior to the resurrection of Christ, the nation of Israel was enslaved in the land of Egypt. God sent a deliverer (Moses) to confront the wicked king and secure the release of the nation from bondage. The only thing to protect the people from death their last night in Egypt was the blood of a lamb applied to the entrances of their houses. They were safe behind the blood of the sacrifice. From this the Feast of Passover was instituted and celebrated every year.

Nearly fourteen centuries after Israel left the bondage of Egypt, Jesus (the Lamb of God) hung on the cross, receiving our sin and judgment, died and was placed in a tomb on the Feast of Passover. Three days later, he rose from the dead on the Feast of Firstfruits. Then fifty days later, on the Feast of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit arrived and empowered the disciples to preach the Word of God. The result? Three thousand people believed and were baptized. The harvest had begun.

God was not only interested in delivering Israel from Egyptian bondage, but he desired to deliver all mankind from the bondage and consequences of sin. The resurrection of Christ (Firstfruits) was God's promise that harvest time was coming. At the conclusion of Pentecost, two loaves of bread (Jew and Gentile) would be waved before the Lord. God used Israel to bring Christ into the world (Firstfruits). The Holy Spirit came to bring the message of the Gospel (the good news that your sins are forgiven) to the world at Pentecost.

I was a part of field that was ripe unto harvest. What about you?

Garden Connect

By Steve & Jeanne Wolfe

We say greetings and thanks from Jeanne and I as we share with you our life experiences in the garden, declaring God as the Creator of all things (John 1:3).

I was born in Staunton, VA – both my maternal and paternal families were farmers. Momma's parents had sheep, a few dairy cows, a few chickens, and 'Old Bob' the horse. They also had a family garden and lived in Blue Grass, VA – Highland county (up in the mountains).

On Daddy's side of the family in Ft. Defiance, VA (Shenandoah Valley) they mostly grew feed corn to sell. They had a few dairy cows, chickens, pigs, and a family garden. We lived in a residential area because of my father's work at American Safety Razor factory. When I was a teenager, my buddy and I from school grew a small vegetable garden, encouraged by our parents. This endeavor was very successful, and we were delighted to share with our family and friends. It also filled in some summertime hours.

Jeanne feels left out because she moved to New York City when she was young but spent summers at camp in Connecticut and was able to pick raspberries from a large field. Homemade bread with fresh raspberry jam for breakfast. Mmmm, good!!

Raspberries can be grown in our USDA Zone 9 with one caution – plant very high in an elevated bed because of extended rainy seasons in Florida. Our first try literally drowned and rotted. Much success for you!

White Dove Farm Garden Connect

We invite you to Garden Connect. The date is Saturday, May 16th at 3:30pm. Call 813-991-9786 for RSVP and please leave your name and phone number and that you are interested in attending. We will call you call you back with information. Bring a cutting, something to share to eat, a smile, and a camera—the garden is extraordinary beautiful this year! A Master Gardener speaker will be announced when you RSVP.

PROFESSIONAL DRIVING COACH

Training your teen to be confident, cautious and safe behind the wheel takes more than a few laps around a parking lot or hours on a website. It takes dedicated, professional coaching in real world driving situations.

WHY ARE PARENTS USING GCS DRIVING ACADEMY FOR THEIR TEEN'S DRIVER TRAINING?

STANDING OVATION!

We can't thank you enough for your expertise, patience, and professionalism. We honestly believe this is the best gift we have ever given our daughter. Teagan is more confident, as are we, and she is even teaching us a thing or two! We plan on seeing you again in a few more years for our son! Until then, many thanks and keep up the outstanding service!

~ Mike and Julie Byrnes, Apollo Beach

THANK YOU

My 16 year old son Mikey had a lot of fun and learned a great deal. He is a lot more confident behind the wheel, is more relaxed, and is now using a lot of things you taught him like using the mirrors correctly, changing lanes correctly, car spacing, and braking to a smooth stop. I highly recommend you to anyone that has a teenage driver - these kids all deserve the safety and confidence that you give them through your lessons.

~ Michael Mauger, Land O' Lakes

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

After each lesson, Catherine came home feeling more confident and cautious about driving. She felt you understood the potential distractions teenagers face and gave her skills to overcome them. After meeting you and seeing your passion for helping teenage drivers stay safe, along with your background in car racing/training, I knew you were the right person to start my daughter driving with good habits and smart defensive skills

~ Donna R., Lithia

WE ARE SO HAPPY

We are so happy with what you have accomplished with Casey. Her fear of driving is gone and she asks every day... "Can I drive?" I worked with her today on turns and she is doing so much better! I am committed to continuing what you have started with her to make sure that she is as safe as she can be on the roads.

~ Michele Laurain, Odessa

PEACE OF MIND

We would really like to thank you for taking our daughter out and work on her driving skills, also giving us peace of mind that, she was ready to drive on her own. You were extremely nice from the first phone call to the last goodbye's. Our daughter felt very comfortable with you and you helped her have more confidence and to be a better defensive driver.

~ Jeff and Faith Weigt

I AM SO GRATEFUL

At the end of the weekend, Mykala was so much more confident behind the wheel of the car than she had been previously with almost 50 hours of driving with me and my husband. I am so grateful for the professionalism and expert driving instruction that she received from George Csasanyi and I would highly recommend any parent of a teen to go the extra mile when it comes to the safety of our children.

He has maintained a 4.0 unweighted GPA throughout high school.

Leadership:
Antonio is the club manager of his school's marching band, leading a group of 100 talented musicians both in performance and rehearsal. Additionally, he is a captain for the school's soccer team, a leader during his experience in practices and games.

Service:
Antonio is an active member of both the Mo Alpha Theta and the National Honor Society chapters at Wiegars Ranch. He is a member, and volunteer for the local community, the school, and an involvement in an individual sports based group and is an assistant at John Lang World School to help the beginning and intermediate band programs.

Citizenship:
Antonio strives to be a role model to everyone around him. He spends a practice full day, leading his team to be successful. He is a student leader, a player and leader of the band, an exceptional sports player, of every sport. He strives to be a role model and strong representative for his school and his hard work. His goal is to be a band and football leader that is a well known first assistant as a freshman, having a better future for his brother.

Antonio Medina (18) is a Venezuelan young man that came to the United States at the age of four years old. His amazing personality and sense of responsibility made him a success since the first day. At the age of five, he started playing baseball at Little League, at ten he started practicing karate and music.

He had never touched an instrument before, and with an experimental project (A band in an elementary school) he started to love music more and more and loved the instrument that he had picked and would be with him forever, the saxophone. Once he got into middle school, he joined the band during the complete three years, and then when high school arrived, he continued to play in the band of Wiregrass High School.

Because of his excellent grades in middle school, he was chosen by the high school to be part of a small group of 25 kids that would participate in a new initiative for Pasco County (The iPad Program) that consisted in the use of iPads instead of books to complete their education. It was a successful program, and Wiregrass received that first year the Apple Distinction, so the program has been growing every year in the school.

Antonio took the most difficult courses that the school had to offer, challenging himself to always be the best. He played in the JV baseball team for two years and in the marching band for the complete four years.

At the end of sophomore year, the most difficult decision came, to continue playing baseball or be complete dedicated to the marching band. With tears in his eyes, he decided to continue just in the band even though he still loved baseball. After that, In his junior year he became the drum major of his band, and during his senior year Wiregrass Ranch High School achieved 7th place in the state band competition.

Seen that he was suffering from not being able to play baseball in the school, we offered him a chance to play in a travel team.

Excited, he accepted and has been playing with JOBA baseball academic since then. JOBA is a prestigious baseball academic owned by Jose Ortega, a Venezuelan player that recruits prospects to prepare them to go professional.

While he was doing all these activities in the school and outside, he also has been very involved in our family business. One day, someone asked him, "What does your family business mean to you, and what do your parents mean to you?" and his answer was:

“The establishment of Gator Fred’s didn’t just enhance what my childhood had been. The store engraved in me a vital essence of my character. With my own bare hands, I helped my family turn an enormous, empty shell of what was once a Bealls Outlet into a beautiful playground of colors and bounce houses and train rides and joy.”

“This experience taught me how to manage a business before I was even a teenager. More importantly, it showed me how to take pride in building something bigger than myself. Every weekend that I spent there instead of with friends, I remained aware that this place was what provided for our food, our house, our lives. I never took for granted what I had. I knew the value of hard work and persistence. My parents taught me the dangers of taking risks but also the courage needed make the leap. For them, I will always be grateful.”

Mother – Where Would We Be Without Her?

Anna Marie Jarvis
May 1, 1864

In 1914, President Wilson signed a bill that officially made the second Sunday in May, Mother's Day. The holiday was meant to be spent in church. Afterwards, sons and daughters would write loving letters to their mothers. Carnations were worn that day—pink or red carnations honored living mothers and white carnations honored mothers that passed.

With each year, more and more Mother's Day carnations were sold and by 1920, greeting card companies got into the Mother's Day business. Anna was enraged by what she considered a lazy excuse for letters that should be handwritten. By 1924, the holiday creator was so appalled with the commercialization of Mother's Day that she petitioned to abolish it.

In 1930, Anna was arrested for disturbing the peace at a Mother's Day carnation sale. Sadly, Anna spent the rest of her life and family inheritance fighting the holiday. She died in 1948, leaving no children to remember her. Since then, Mother's Day has become one of the most profitable holidays for florists and the phone companies' highest volume day of the year.

This probably wouldn't please Anna, but deep down, she would have to be satisfied that on her Mother's Day, millions of moms around the world receive extra attention and well-deserved hugs.

For more on on Mother's Day, visit online <http://www.history.com/videos/history-of-mothers-day#history-of-mothers-day>.

I was reading in the Dunndead Gazettes that Mother's Day was created by Anna Marie Jarvis. In May of 1908, Anna held a memorial and handed out white carnations, her mom's favorite flower. Pink or red carnations honored living mothers and white carnations honored mothers that passed. She later contacted Philadelphia philanthropist John Wanamaker, who joined a Mother's Day committee in hopes of honoring all mothers all across the nation.

What Does the Bible Say About the Virgin Mary?

The word “until” clearly indicates that Joseph and Mary did have sexual union after Jesus was born. Joseph and Mary had several children together after Jesus was born. Jesus had four half-brothers: James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas (Matthew 13:55). Jesus also had half-sisters, although they are not named or numbered (Matthew 13:55-56). God blessed and graced Mary by giving her several children, which in that culture was the clearest indication of God's blessing on a woman.

One time when Jesus was speaking, a woman in the crowd proclaimed, “Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts at which you nursed.” (Luke 11:27) There was never a better opportunity for Jesus to declare that Mary was indeed worthy of praise and adoration. What was Jesus' response? “On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.” (Luke 11:28) To Jesus, obedience to God's Word was more important than being the woman who gave birth to the Savior.

Nowhere in Scripture does Jesus, or anyone else, direct any praise, glory, or adoration towards Mary. Elizabeth, Mary's relative, praised Mary in Luke 1:42-44, but her praise is based on the blessing of giving birth to the Messiah. It was not based on any inherent glory in Mary.

Mary was present at the cross when Jesus died (John 19:25). Mary was also with the apostles on the day of Pentecost (Acts 1:14). However, Mary is never mentioned again after Acts chapter 1. The apostles did not give Mary a prominent role. Mary's death is not recorded in the Bible. Nothing is said about Mary ascending to heaven or having an exalted role there. The earthly mother of Jesus, Mary, should be respected, but she is not worthy of our worship or adoration.

The Bible nowhere indicates that Mary can hear our prayers or that she can mediate for us with God. Jesus is our only advocate and mediator in heaven (1 Timothy 2:5). If offered worship, adoration, or prayers, Mary would say the same as the angels: “Worship God!” (Revelation 19:10) Mary herself sets the example for us, directing her worship, adoration, and praise to God alone: “My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for He has been mindful of the humble state of His servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed, for the Mighty One has done great things for me — holy is His name.” Luke 1:46-49, Mary's Song of Praise.

Memorial Day

It's the three-day weekend that officially kicks off summer vacations... a time for hanging out at the beach, barbecuing, even catching a few laps at the Indy 500. But Memorial Day is also the most solemn American holiday--a day to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice, while defending their nation.

In the Civil War, America's bloodiest chapter, over 600,000 soldiers were killed in action. Almost every community in every state suffered the loss of young men. As the war came to an end, mourners in both northern and southern states began placing flags and flowers on the graves of fallen soldiers.

The town of Waterloo, New York is officially credited with starting the holiday. On May 5, 1866, its citizens closed their shops and businesses so that everyone could decorate the graves of the men killed during the war. Then an old war general had an idea. John A. Logan, leader of the Union Veteran Association, spearheaded an effort to unite all the decoration services into one national holiday, designating May 30th as Decoration Day. On the first national Decoration Day in 1868, 5,000 war widows, orphans, and other mourners gathered at Arlington National Cemetery. They placed flowers and ribbons on the 20,000 graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers. Two future Presidents and fellow Union veterans, Ulysses S. Grant and James A. Garfield, attended the ceremony.

Throughout the 19th century, Decoration Day grew. Ceremonies were held in major Civil War battlefields like Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and Antietam field in Maryland. By the end of the century, the holiday was renamed Memorial Day.

But war wounds ran deep; most southern states refused to commemorate a holiday they regarded as honoring Union soldiers. So each state commemorated their war dead with different Confederate Decoration Days. Several southern states continue the tradition to this day.

WWI ushered in the age of modern warfare. America lost over 130,000 soldiers in the global conflict. This shared experience finally bonded America's north and south. When the war ended, May 30th became a day to honor all American soldiers who died in battle as far back as the Revolutionary War. America interred its first Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery on Armistice Day in 1921.

Every Memorial Day, this soldier and other unknown soldiers are honored with a wreath-laying ceremony conducted by the President or Vice President.

They are reminders of all those who've never made it home. Memorial Day became a federal holiday in 1971, when Congress shifted it from May 30th to the fourth Monday in May, giving federal workers a three-day weekend.

All across America, veterans and civilians still gather in parades and vigils to remember the generations who gave their lives for their nation's freedom.

An Act of Kindness—The Good Samaritan

Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he travelled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "He who showed mercy on him."
Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

—Luke 10:30–37, World English Bible

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!
